

Tower Bridge

- Tower bridge in London is a drawbridge, which is located in the centre of the British capital.
- This bridge was built in 1894.

- Construction of the bridge lasted 8 years, and there were about 500 builders.

- It is located above the river Thames, near the tower of London.
- This is one of the main symbols of London

- The bridge was designed by architect Horace Johnson
- The long bridge is 944 meters with two towers height

In Memoriam.

1887.

- Also there is an observation platform
- The total cost of constructed construction is 1 184 000 pounds (almost 20 milliard rubles).

Thank you for attention!