

“If you can't fly
then run,
If you can't run
then walk,
If you can't walk
then crawl, But whatever you do
You have to keep moving forward.”

Martin Luther King

1) His name was originally Michael, not Martin

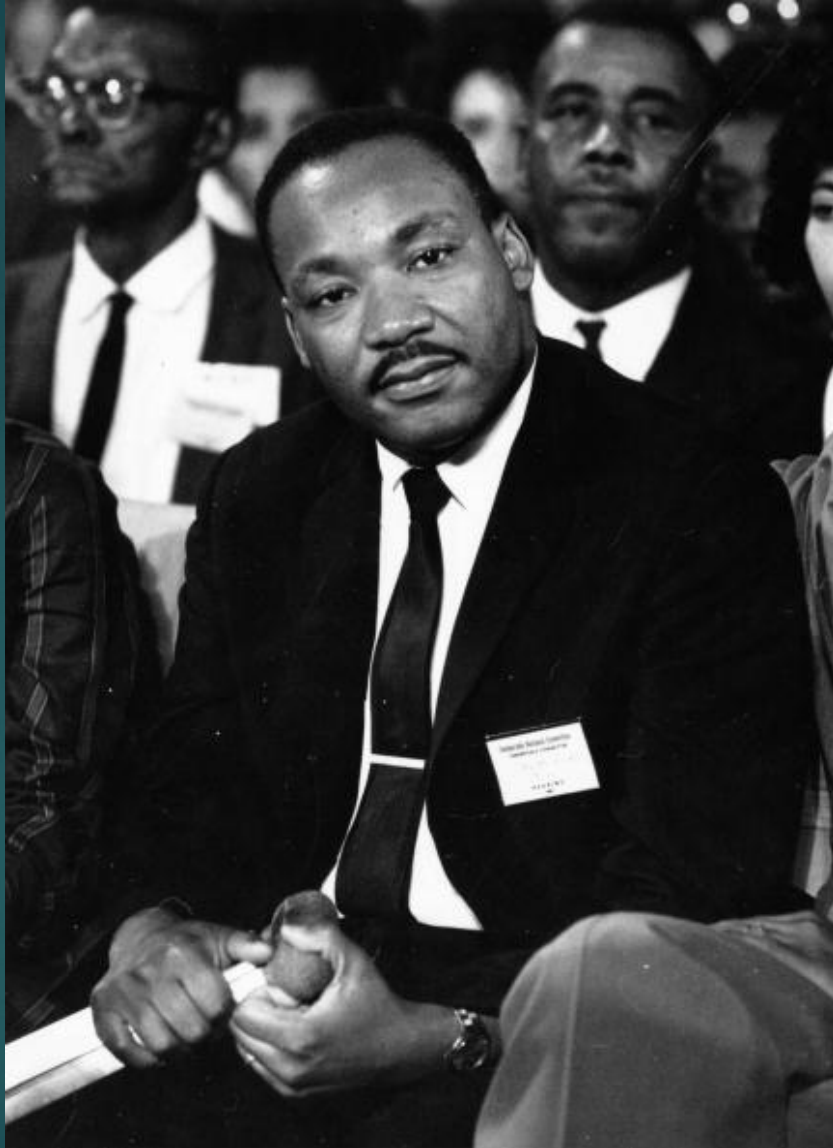

2) At the age of 12, he seems to have tried to commit suicide. It was May of 1941 when his grandmother passed away after a heart attack.

3) King Jr. skipped two grades in high school, 9th and 11th, and entered college (Moorehouse College) at the tender age of 15 in 1944.

By 19, he received a bachelor's degree in sociology.

His honeymoon was spent at a funeral parlor... not because someone died, simply because a friend owned the parlor and offered to let him use it for his honeymoon.

King was appointed the honorary president of 'Gandhi Society for Human Right' an organization to defend the ministers of SCLC in libel suit over newspaper advertisement.

King liked singing and music and was influenced by his mother, who was an accomplished organist and choir leader. He became a member of junior choir in his church.
