The cape Pur-Navolok - the place where there has begun the history the city of Arkhangelsk in 1584. This place is designated by a beautiful monument in the form of a big sea wave and the memorable plate.

Peter I visited Arkhangelsk 3 paza:b 1693,1694, and 1702. Many residents of Arkhangelsk who have got under influence of mythology about Peter I are sure that rough blossoming of Arkhangelsk has begun with him. At the time of Peter I's government in Arkhangelsk the Russia's first ship-building shipyard is under construction, and then the admiralty is based. Petr attached huge significance to a role of this city, and in 1708 he does Arkhangelsk by the center of the province. According to Peter I's decrees in 1719 and 1724 the free Pomor chernososhny peasantry has been deprived of the freedoms granted still by Ivan the Terrible and transferred to the category of the state peasants. The decrees Pyotr has forbidden Pomors to build traditional sea harvesting vessels and has demanded to build the ships in the manner inostrannykh.11 December, 1724 Pyotr I the nominal decree has forbidden the foreign trade ships to come to Arkhangelsk. It has led to sharp crash of economy of the capital of Pomorze, a mass impoverishment of Pomors, and any more never Arkhangelsk could reach former prosperity.

City of military glory

According to the Decree of the Russian President Putin Vladimir Vladimirovich of December 1, 2006, in each city awarded ranks "The city of military glory" the stele devoted to this event has to be established. Arkhangelsk has been awarded this high rank on December 5, 2009 then discussions on a question of installation of a memorable stele have begun. On February 3 there have taken place public hearings concerning a stele installation site, but to a consensus it wasn't succeeded to come. By the end of March, after long discussions the installation site of a monument has been defined — a stele has been decided to establish on crossing of Svoboda St. and Severnaya Dvina Embankment, near hotel Pur-Navolok. Veterans and citizens of Arkhangelsk actively took part in the solution of the matter.

Chumbarov-Luchinsky Avenue.

Prospectus extent: 1200 meters. It is located parallel to Troitsky Avenue, lasts from Vyucheysky St. to Svoboda St.
It is called in honor of the poet and the revolutionary figure Fyodor Stepanovich Chumbarov-Luchinsky.
Till 1921 the prospectus carried the name Pskov, even before Average and Bolshaya Meshchanskaya Street. Now is the pedestrian street museum where there are constructions of wooden Arkhangelsk. On the prospectus there are two interesting monuments - to Stepan Pisakhov and Seong Maling - to the hero of fairy tales of Pisakhov.

The museum "Small Korela" is a unique collection of monuments of wooden architecture under the open sky. Here, in 25 km from Arkhangelsk, in the territory of about 140 hectares 120 most versatile structures - churches, часовень, belltowers are concentrated, the country estates, mills, barns constructed at the XVI beginning of the 20th centuries.

The museum "Small Korela" is a collector and the keeper of original heritage of Pomor edges. He in the territory of the museum is represented folklorno - ethnographic theater "Novation", masters of national crafts and crafts.

The museum "Small Korela" is not just the museum of the Pomor heritage. It is unique synthesis of a landscape, monuments and folk art. Each visitor finds here what so isn't enough for him in vanity of modern city life: silence of modest northern country, warmly wooden walls.

There is everything that so on heart to the Russian person!

A sunset over a city skyline reflected in water. The sky is a mix of purple, blue, and orange, with the sun low on the horizon. The city buildings are silhouetted against the bright orange glow of the setting sun. The water in the foreground is dark with some ripples, and a small boat is visible in the distance.

Let time fly
White-winged bird,
Over the years doesn't grow dim
Your beauty.

And to me it isn't necessary
Any capital,
Loveliest to me
Native places.

Ancient Chumbarovki
I inhale air,
I admire boundless
Smart Dvina.

To darling cathedrals
I grow soul,
What heart is granted
To us world and rest.

Remain for ever!
Prosper, expand!
Stored by heavenly
Manpower.

You in every spring
As a flower get out of hand,
Also be even more more beautiful
Arkhangelsk native!!!
