

The problems of today's youth

Every young person has his own point of view on his life and future. Teenagers are self-confident, like risking. So all of us want to try everything in the life, to grow up as soon as possible.

Problems of moral education of youth

Problems of this nature occur from economic instability of the state, is not able to provide the required number of jobs, reluctance of employers to accept low-skilled and inexperienced employees. The problem of youth employment is also in financial claims of young professionals who are employers. Thus, young people looking for work, but can't find a job, why not have a livelihood. It pushes for the search of illegal earnings, which often pushes to crime, drug addiction leads to poverty, promotes the development of housing problems of young people. The state program on providing young families with their own house practically implemented. A mortgage becomes a very heavy yoke.

Problems of moral education of youth

Having no prospects in life, forced to fight for survival, many young boys and girls become part of the criminal world. The social vulnerability of families, the necessity of seeking the earnings impact on the culture and education of young people: they are moving away from studying spiritual ideals

Low life, unsuccessful, the inability to implement pushing young people to the testing of alcohol and drugs. The problem of alcoholism among young people has a monstrous scale. Needless to say, every second high school student drink alcohol twice a week. The problem of drug addiction among young people is also relevant. By the way, this dependence occurs not only in children from low-income families: many addicts are children of wealthy parents.

Considerable dimensions of the problem of Smoking among young people. Every third high school student smokes constantly. Indeed, among young people there is a mistaken prestige of Smoking, which, in their opinion, looks "fashionable" and liberating.

The problems of today's youth culture

The decline in the living standards of young people was reflected in their cultural life. Popular Western ideas of consumer attitude to life that is reflected in the cult of money and fashion, the pursuit of material well-being, the pursuit of pleasure.

In addition, there are problems of youth leisure. In many cities and villages do not create the conditions for cultural leisure time: there are no free pools, sports clubs or hobby groups. So boys and girls sit in front of the TV or computer, in the company of peers with a cigarette and a bottle in his hand.

Spiritual impoverishment is reflected in the problem of speech culture of modern youth. Low education levels, communication on the Internet, the creation of youth subcultures contributed to the development of slang, far from the rules of the Russian literary language. Following the fashion, the younger generation uses speech swear words, slang expressions, violates linguistic norms.

Psychological problems of youth

Psychological problems of youth are related, mainly, to the lack of clear life points. With the laws of life boys and girls are introduced not only parents, school and books, but also the street, the products of mass culture, the media, their own experience. The indifference of power and powerlessness, boyish provokes in young people the development of indifference or aggression, pushes to join the youth informal groups. In addition, adolescence is a time when a person has to solve many important problems: the choice of profession, spouse, friends, is the definition of way of life, the formation of their own world.

The solutions to the problems of young people are in a deliberate systematic policy of the state, not only on papers and speeches. Government needs to really recognize that young boys and girls – this is the future of the country.
