My school

In 1936 at the address Krasnoflottsev street No. 1 the two-storeyed school on four hundred pupils which was helped to build by Komsomol members-factory workers 26 classes in which 971 pupils studied were put into operation. The Director of the school was Varvara Davydova Efimovna. Initially, the school was opened as a seven-year school, only in the 1937-1938 school year it received the status of a full secondary school number 147. The number 66 was assigned to the school in 1940 due to the renumbering of schools by order of the city Department of education.
