Active Citizens: Election Broadcast

Imagine that you are employed by the party allocated to your group by your teacher.

You have been asked to produce a party election broadcast to get your party's key message across to the public.

In your group, decide what is your key message?

How could you get this message across to the public in a two minute film?

Prepare your broadcast and then present it to the class.

Interview a member of the public or expert?

Short play?

Speak to camera and explain why your policies will improve Britain?

Active Citizens: Political Spectrum

People sometimes talk about different parties as being 'left-wing' or 'right-wing'.

Does anyone know what these terms mean?

The terms "left" and "right" appeared during the French Revolution of 1789 when members of the National Assembly divided into supporters of the king to the president's right and supporters of the revolution to his left.

Active Citizens: Political Spectrum

Today, parties on the left tend to support higher taxes and more government spending. Political parties are described as right wing if they want less government spending and lower taxes.

Where would you place the political parties on the political spectrum?

WOTE

The image features the word "WOTE" in a bold, hand-drawn font. Each letter is filled with a horizontal tricolor: red at the top, white in the middle, and blue at the bottom. The letters are outlined with a thick black stroke. The 'W' is composed of two 'V' shapes, the 'O' is a simple oval, the 'T' is a blocky shape, and the 'E' has three horizontal bars. The overall style is reminiscent of a political slogan or a graphic design element.
