

Charity in Pricewaterhouse Coopers (PwC) and Philip Morris International (PMI)

By Nikitina Anastasia

About PwC

- The PwC Charitable Foundation link

(data from <http://www.pwccharitablefoundation.org/index.html>)

The PwC Charitable Foundation supports the people of PwC in times of need and invests in emerging solutions to society's greatest challenges in education and humanitarianism.

About PwC

- The PwC Charitable Foundation link

(data from <http://www.pwccharitablefoundation.org/index.html>)

The PwC Charitable Foundation's commitment

Help educate veterans and/or their children through scholarships

Prepare, train, and/or re-credential veterans returning to careers in today's ever-changing economy

Scale and build the capacity of leading veteran service organizations to help them serve more veterans

*Our progress toward our goal to invest $5 million plus**

FY15-FY16

FY19 GOAL*

$5.3 million

* Official commitment period: November 2014 – November 2018

Our progress toward our goal to help 100,000 veterans and/or their children overcome the barriers they face to education and career transition over five years.

FY15-FY16

FY19 GOAL

32,000 veterans

About PwC

Charity in the Moscow Office:

1. Help disabled children by collecting plastic caps.
2. Annual charity gathering of clothes for low-income people (Twice a year)
3. Seasonal visits to orphanages (every season)
4. Blood donation (every season)
5. Environment Protection

About PMI (Russia)

- NY Charity (since 2012)
- Refusal to produce cigarettes (in future, now – iQOS)
- Support for veterans of the Second World War and those who suffered during the siege of Leningrad (since 2000)
- Help in learning foreign languages
- «Children's clubs»
- Support of socially unprotected strata of the population
- Computer literacy training for the Eldery (Status: Online)
- Retraining for teachers

pwc

Thank you for your attention

