The Plan

1. Family poverty, youth violence
2. Smoking, drug and alcohol addiction
3. Indifference of adults
4. Looking for a way out

The problems in life

- low income;
- have financial problems;
- live a boring life;
- treated badly at school, at home;
- the unemployed parents;
- bad habits;

The reasons of being bad

- violence as the symptom;
- cruel actions as an expression ...
- to differ from others;
- a lack of good life;
- to express themselves;

What measures should be taken against bad habits?

(Smoking, drinking alcohol, drug addiction)

- to put into prison for...
- to arrest for...
- to sack from school for...
- to pay a fine (to take money) for...
- to ban.....
 - in the cinemas, in the theatres
 - in the hospitals
 - at schools
 - offices...

You are unwilling ...

-I'd rather not actually...

-I don't really want to...

-Well, I think I prefer ...

-I'm afraid I can't possibly ...

I'm not really willing ...

Giving reasons ...

-Well, you see,

-The reason is that ...

-Well, the thing is ...

-Let me explain, the thing is, ...

But the point is, ...

It's like this; you see, ...

If I could explain ...

How do teenagers feel about their problems?

- get upset or depressed;
- are quite indifferent;
- are not taken seriously;
- are treated badly;
- useless to discuss

- to be involved in positive activities...
- to help families in need...
- not to be afraid of being impolite...
- to talk about the problems...
- to have the feeling to be cared for...
- to join sport clubs...
- to support needy children...
- to be taken seriously...

Can you help anybody to solve the problems?

How to help?

Svetlana and Maksim: «Being a teenager means having the first love»

Dmitry: «Being a teenager means choosing your own way in life»

Lyubov: «Being a teenager means for me having a lot of friends, going to school every day»

Vladislav: «Being a teenager means getting knowledge out of school subjects»

Alexsandra: «I think being a teenager is being in love, being an active person, getting a lot of positive emotions and being independent»
