

My favorite sport

complied: Abilkhay

S.

FOOTBALL

Football - a team sport in which the aim is to score the ball in the opponent's legs or other parts of the body (except hands) more times than the opposing team. Currently, the most popular and mass sport in the world

Rules of the game

Each team consists of a maximum of eleven players (excluding substitutes), one of whom must be the goalkeeper.

Goalkeepers are the only players who are allowed to play a hand, provided they do so within the penalty area from his own goal.

Football game called the game, which in turn consists of two halves of 45 minutes. The pause between the first and second halves of 15 minutes, during which teams are resting, but by its end change ends.

The goal - to get the ball into the opponent's goal, to make it as a lot of time and try to prevent a goal into his own net. The match won by the team that scores more goals.

Major football tournaments

UEFA Champions League - the most prestigious European club football tournament, held annually under the auspices of UEFA.

The winner of the tournament became the club's 22, 12 of them have won the tournament more than once. Spanish clubs in the tournament scored 16 victories. Record for the number of titles won is Real Madrid, to win 11 times, which is the reigning champion, after beating "Atletico" team in 2016.

Major football tournaments

FIFA World Cup - a major international football competition. World Championship held by the governing body of world football - FIFA, and to participate in it are men's national teams of FIFA member countries from all continents.

The last World Cup was held from 12 June to 13 July 2014 in Brazil. The current world champion - the national team of Germany.

Next Championships 2018 will be held in Russia, the championship will be held in 2022 in Qatar.

My favorite footballer

I like many game players, but among them is the play of players like Mesut Ozil and Cristiano Ronaldo.

Mesut Ozil played in London Arsenal.

While Cristiano Ronaldo playing for my favorite club Real Madrid.

© Real Madrid via Getty Images

Football has been and remains the most popular team game in the world.

Football for me is not just a hobby, a kind of safety valve, which diverts from the harsh realities of football - this is now what makes my every day saturated, gives the opportunity to experience real emotions, to communicate with these people to live a full life present.

Thank you for your attention