- Now a question of what my future profession will seem to me very important and demanding the exact answer. The earlier you will be defined as whom you will work, the it will be easier to achieve in this case success

- In the future I want to become a lawyer

- The lawyer is a specialist in interpretation and application of laws, law enforcement in activity of public authorities, enterprises, institutions, officials and citizens, to opening and establishment of the facts of offenses, definition of a measure of responsibility and a punishment of the guilty, rendering legal aid to the population.

- As we live in the constitutional state, lawyers in it are very demanded. Continually there are disputes which need to be resolved fairly and under the law.

- I often notice that I can easily settle the conflicts between different people, having penetrated into an essence of their problem. I like to think out conflict solutions.

- The legal condition of our society, the legal structure of the state attracts strong interest of me. It gives pleasure to me to compare operations of different laws and therefore I think that I will suit the lawyer's profession

- I am sure that in order that was to all comfortably in our society, life in it has to be under construction on the basis of laws and accurate rules.

- The lawyer can hold different positions: notary, prosecutor, judge, lawyer, etc.

- Besides, in the modern world with his numerous problems: individual, group, state and international disputes really specialized shots are extremely necessary for their decision

- I am attracted in this profession also by the fact that to it is trained in all higher education institutions and colleges of our country

- The profession of the lawyer in itself is already considered prestigious. They are held in respect and have the mass of advantages in society.

- Lawyers have a possibility of excellent career development. The majority of the leading and highly paid positions of the country demand legal education. Having so started the career, you as a result by persistent work and continuous self-improvement can grow to the Attorney-General or the judge of arbitration court. It is for this purpose important to have faultless reputation, successful high-profile cases and to make a lot of efforts.

- I understand that at us in the country there is a lot of lawyers, the competition among them big, but, as well as in any business, professionals are highly appreciated and have advantage. Therefore I will need to put a lot of effort and time and to try to become the real pro to occupy the niche in career and the worthy place in life.

- I want to bring benefit to society in which I live, because if we solve all disputes and the conflicts in a civilized way and under the law, then it will become better for all to live. I am confident in it.

- My future profession inspires me. Every day in educational institution for me, as if a holiday. Daily I fill up the knowledge in this sphere: I study laws, charters, I argue, I think - it is so healthy and fine!

- The lawyer has to be the person of honor, justice. I like my profession the fact that I can help the persons, in it needing. Communication with different people and desire to solve their vital problem gives me pleasure.

- Everyone, probably, knows how many it is necessary forces and work to achieve the desirable. But only those who don't give up at the first difficulties failures - reach the. The main thing - to believe in the forces, knowledge and everything will turn out in this hard profession.

- It is hard for the beginning lawyer. The main thing - persistent work, desire, work on.

- Thus, work of the lawyer seems personally to me the most important and necessary in my life and life of all other people. Our general dream - to live in amicable and, of course, legal society
