

Germany

Germany (German. Deutschland) official name-Federal Republic of Germany. state in Central Europe. The area is 357 408.74 km². The population as of 31 December 2015 was 82,175,684 inhabitants. It ranks 16th in the world in terms of population (2nd in Europe) and 62nd in the world in terms of territory (8th in Europe).

The Capital Is Berlin.

The official language is German. About 65 % of the population professes Christianity.

Arms Germany

- One of the state symbols of Germany, is a yellow - Golden shield with a black single-headed eagle facing with head right, with wings spread and lowered wings, looking red heraldic right, with scarlet beak, tongue and claws.

The establishment of the Federal coat of arms and Federal eagle of Germany was adopted on January 20, 1950, but it contains only a description. The drawing of the coat of arms was adopted on July 4, 1952 and completely repeats the drawing of the coat of arms of Germany of the sample of 1928.

The flag of Germany was approved on June 7, 1950. Civil, state, trade flag is a rectangular cloth with three horizontal stripes of black, red, yellow (top to bottom) colors.

Geographical location.

Located in Central Europe

Borders:

In the North with Denmark,

In the East with Poland and the Czech Republic,

In the South with Austria and Switzerland,

In the West with France, Luxembourg, Belgium and the Netherlands.

In the North, the natural boundary is formed by the North and Baltic seas