

Hippies

Rainbow children

Pharhutdinova Eugenia,
10 "A" form

The hippie subculture was originally a youth movement that began in the United States during the early 1960s and spread around the world.

The peace symbol was developed in the UK as a logo for the Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament, and was embraced by U.S. anti-war protestors in the 1960s.

Both men and women in the hippie movement wore jeans and long hair and both genders wore sandals or went barefoot.

Men often had beards, while women wore little or no makeup.

Hippies often chose brightly colored clothing and wore unusual styles, such as bell-bottom pants, vests, tie-dyed garments, dashikis, peasant blouses, and long, full skirts.

Much of hippie clothing is self-made, and hippies often buy their clothes from flea markets and second-hand shops.

Hippie homes, vehicles and other possessions were often decorated with psychedelic art.

A 1967 VW Kombi bus is decorated with hand-painting

It is necessary to be in that place where is comfortable.

I want to tell about some principles and, maybe, commandment of hippies!

I think that it is the most harmless subculture...

- Hippies - not violence.
- Hippies - a free people.

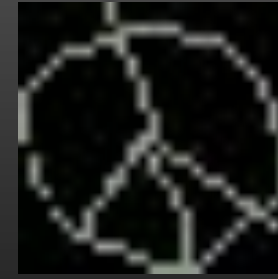

Hippies deny the society, don't take the authorities a state and money.

• There is no the laws and traditional moral rates for them

• They don't understand, what is a border and why it is necessary to be protected. Hippies know for what the war and they do not take part in it. Hippies are against any murder.

- They are anarchists. They are vegetarians.
- They individuals. They prefer to live the creative commune.
- They consider that it is impossible to spoil the nature - thence long hairs, naturalness.
- They respect the rights of the weaks. They are one family, they do not separate the children (and people) on "my" and "someone else", "strong" and "weak" and etc. They are oriented to love and follow to this tradition.

Remember:

“If it’s seems person to be fool, but good, he will remain fool, but the whole movement of events, caused his(its) foolishness will do him bastard”.

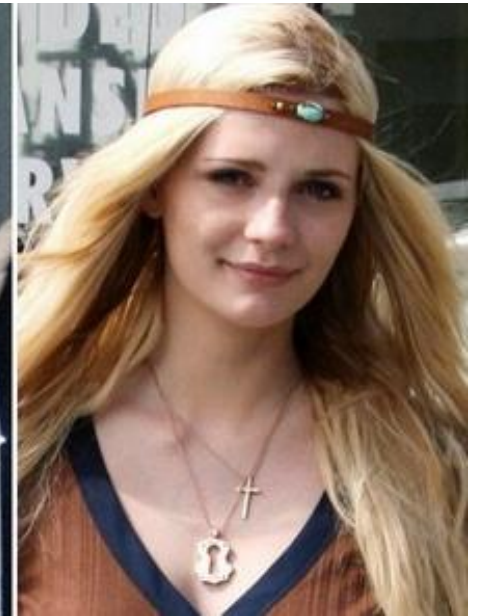

M.VELLER

(from one hippie’s site)

Kip the wimp hippy, 16 years old:
I am a hippy my hair is long
I am a hippy I am never wrong
I am a hippy peace is my middle name
I am a hippy war is lame
I am a hippy covered in beads
I am a hippy but I don't smoke weeds

That's all!