

The Tower of London

The Tower of London is an ancient Norman stone fortress in London, England.

It stands on the bank of the River Thames, in the oldest part of the city.

History of the Tower of London

- The fortress was built many centuries ago.
- The Tower of London has played a big role in English history.
- It is really old.

Towers

- The Tower of London has got many towers.
- The White Tower is a central tower at the
- Tower of London. It was a prison. Many people died there.

the Bloody Tower

According to legend, the Bloody Tower is haunted by the ghosts. Several ghosts are said to be residents at the tower of London

Ravens

- Ravens
- The Tower of London has a collection of ravens, large black birds. They are taken care of by the staff. The ravens' wing feathers are kept short so they can't fly away. This is because a legend says that if the ravens leave the Tower, the Tower and the Kingdom will fall.

Beefeaters

- You can see Beefeaters in the Tower. You can't miss them with their black and red uniforms.. Their nickname, Beefeaters, is believed to have originated from them being allowed to eat as much beef as they wanted from the king's table.

the Crown Jewels

- Seeing the Crown Jewels is one of the reasons so many people visit the Tower of London. These jewels are a big part of the British Monarchy and several pieces are still used by the Royal Family today.

