

Manager of the restaurant

Prepared by the students of group Mr-141
Bogomolov Polina
and Isakova Daria
Teacher: Hatzipetru O.S.

Good afternoon. Our names are Polina and Daria, we are studying at college of hospitality “Tsaritsyno” on the 4th year(specialty restaurant manager). We have chosen this way because we have many ideas how to change the restaurant industry and improve service.

Our profession gives the opportunity for promotion and development. Training in Mariott Aurora and Renaissance Monarch hotels has given us extensive experience and professional knowledge. We have also made a lot of good friends in the restaurant industry.

Our philosophy : love what you do and do what you love!

A scroll of parchment with text about restaurant management. The scroll is unrolled and has a yellowish, aged appearance. It is set against a background of dark blue and purple geometric shapes.

The profession of restaurant manager appeared in the 20th century.

To become a restaurant manager you need to gain some experience and have organizing skills - all restaurant managers used to be waiters or barmen in the past.

A manager is a person who should know a lot of sciences as a

Economy

Marketing

Sociology

Communication

Psychology

Nowadays a profession of manager is very demanded and job market offers a great choice of jobs for managers in different fields of life. There is restaurant, sport, hotel management, public or marketing management and store management.

Restaurant manager

Store management

Sport management

Usually people follow their wishes and if you want to work as a manager, you have all chances.

Manager training takes place in educational establishments, where you will have 2 parts of education: theory and practice.

A manager should be full of fun, enthusiasm, vital energy positive willingness to help, sense of responsibility, good nature and have organizing and leading skills.

He should be firm and fair but at the same time have working experience and professional knowledge.

Being a manager means being active, initiative and ready for changes. Also it is opportunity to improve foreign languages and to meet new useful connections.

We hope that this presentation was useful and informative for you and wish you much success.

Remember – the dreams aren't have to be given up.

THANK YOU!

