AMISH COMMUNITY

Walking into an Amish community is like going back in time. You'll see girls in long dresses, horses pulling buggies, and homes lit by kerosene lamps. Amish people lead a simple way of life centered around faith and family. They speak a language called Pennsylvania Dutch, or Amish, which sounds like German.

AMISH MEN

Men and boys wear dark-coloured suits, plain shirts and black or straw broad-brimmed hats. Belts, sweaters, ties and gloves forbidden. They do not have moustaches, but they grow beards after they get married. Men marry at the age of early 20th. Their hobby is sport.

AMISH WOMEN

Amish women and girls wear plain dresses. They also wear aprons and bonnets as a sign of their respect for God. They never wear jewelry or make up. Amish girls never cut their hair. Women usually marry at 17 or 18. Their occupation is housekeeping, hobby is hand-made wares.

AMISH FAMILY

Community members are expected to marry and have families. They can only marry other Amish. Wedding dates for the Amish are in November or December, when the harvest has been completed. Men and women follow traditional gender roles.

OLD AMISH FAMILY

They often have large families, about 8 or 10 children. Divorce is forbidden. The Amish traditional family provides much of the education for the child. Although the formal education ends after they finish the eighth grade, then the boys will work with the father in the fields. The girls work inside the home and garden, alongside the mother.

Some Helpful Tips for Writing a Topic

- A family is a group of people who live in the same house. Do you think it is true? What is a family in your opinion?
- What issues do you think cause conflicts between parents and teenagers?
- Would you prefer to be an only child or one of two or three children? Is it better to be the youngest or the eldest child in a family? Give your reasons.
- You work on a magazine answering the letters sent in to its agony column. Decide what advice you can give to a girl who has written in to say that she is always quarreling with her sister.
