FREESTYLE WRESTLING

- is a sport that consists in single combat of two sportsmen under certain rules; with the use of various techniques (captures, throws, coups, sweeps, etc.), in which each of the rivals tries to put another on the shoulder blades and win. In freestyle wrestling, unlike the Greco-Roman wrestling, it is allowed to grab the opponent's legs, cut and actively use the legs when performing any technique.

HISTORY

- From historical sources it is known that in the old days in the British Empire there was a struggle in which wrestlers were allowed to grasp the legs and tricks with the actions of the feet .
- Currently, the leading countries in free-style wrestling are: the USA, Russia, Azerbaijan, Iran, Georgia.
