

REPORTER

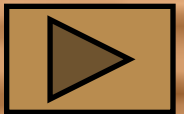

PAST SIMPLE TENSE

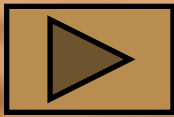

BY HERBER

I was leaving my office when the phone rang.

Typethe missing verb by clicking on the keys of the typewriter

It was the editor.
He t o l d me that something happened at Mr. Smith's house.

When I arrived to the house the man was really angry.

A thief stole the money from his safe.

"I was sleeping when I heard a noise
downstairs", he said.

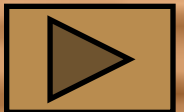

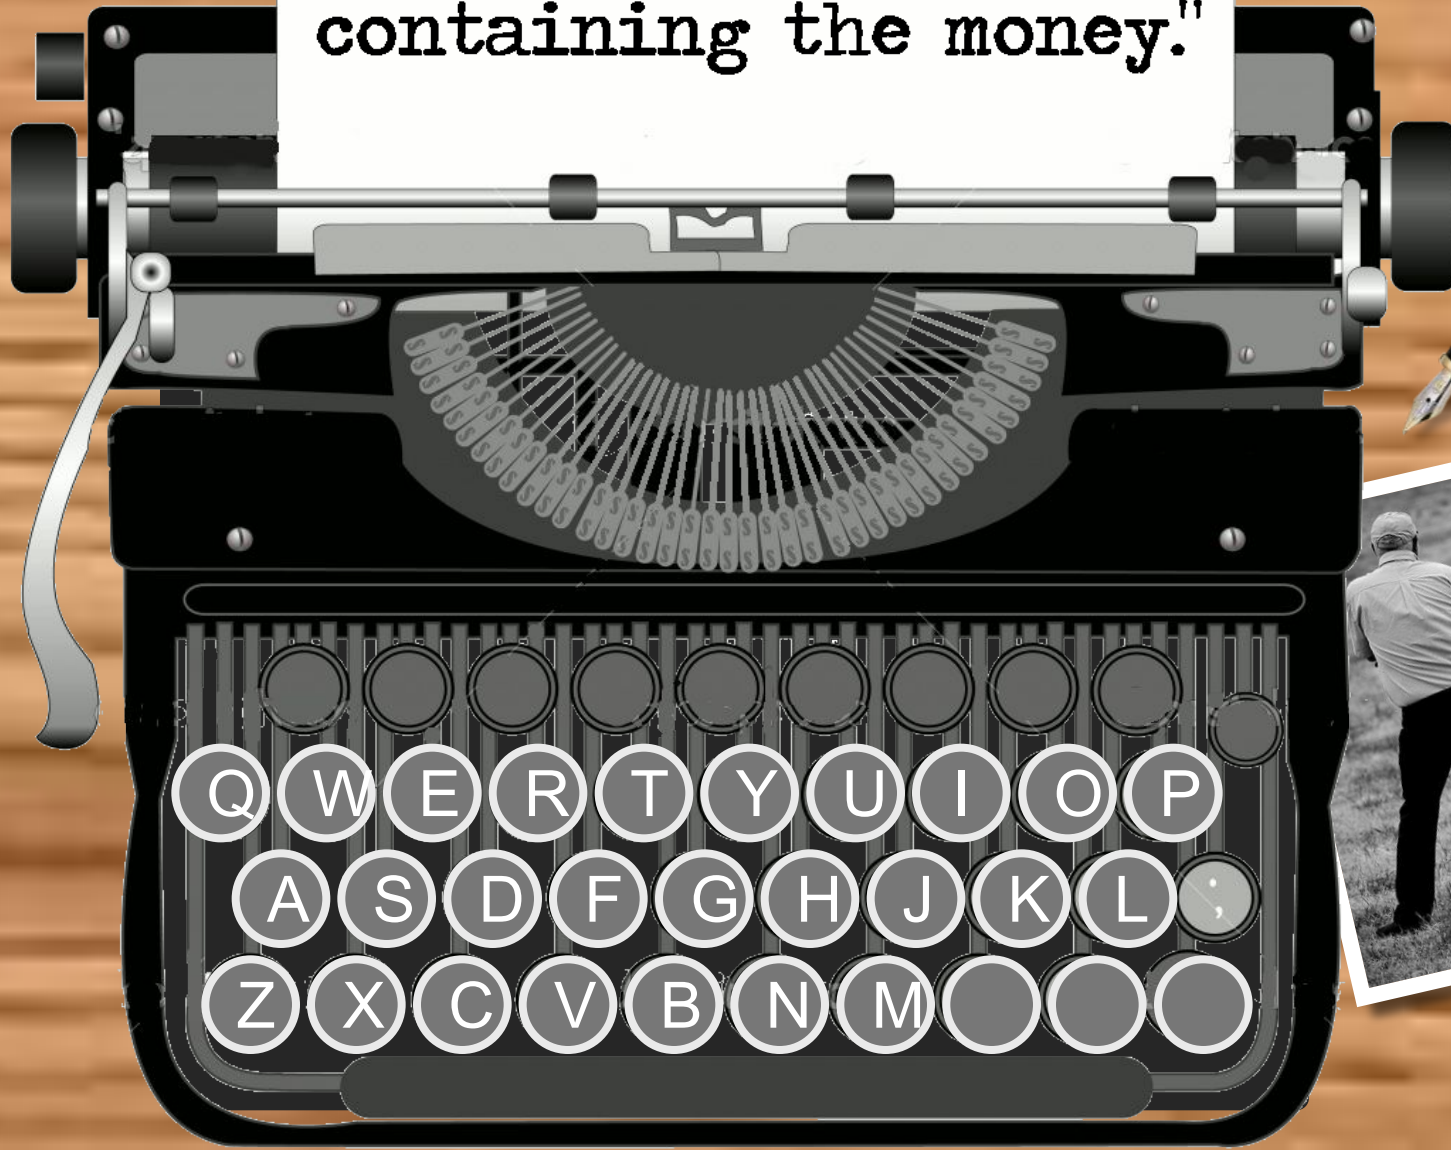

"When I went down
to the living room,
the window was open."

"I saw a man jumping over the fence of the garden".

"My dog chased him
and recovered the bag containing the money."

The police caught the thief when he was driving a car.

THE NEXT DAY ...

AT THE BROWN'S HOME ...

Listen to this, darling! Something happened in Mr. Smith's house. He was really angry.

Answer the questions

Why was he angry?

Because a thief stole his money.

What was Mr. Smith doing when the theft occurred?

He was sleeping.

What did he do then?

He went down the stairs.

What did he see?

He saw an open window.

Was the thief in the house?

No he wasn't. He was jumping over the fence.

Did the police catch him?

Yes, they did.

What was he doing?

He was driving a car.

Did they recover the money?

No they didn't.
Mr. Smith's dog did it.

