

The background of the slide is a vibrant, close-up photograph of autumn leaves. The leaves are in various stages of color change, ranging from bright yellow and orange to deep red and brown. The lighting is soft and warm, creating a cozy, seasonal atmosphere. The leaves are scattered across the frame, with some in sharp focus and others blurred, suggesting a shallow depth of field.

Autumn holidays of English-speaking countries

What is autumn?

A still life composition featuring autumn harvest elements. On the left, a woven basket is partially visible, containing several bright red apples. A branch with yellow and green leaves and small red berries extends across the top and middle. The background is a dark, rustic wooden surface with horizontal planks.

Autumn traditionally starts with harvesting

and now we will watch the video about harvest festival by students Klenyayeva and Salyamov!

-
- In September we still have warm days without rain and overcast. Do you know what they are called?

Indian summer

- Do you know what indians did during this season?

Harvesting

- What do we call it in Russia?

Бабуе
лето

A song about Indian summer

- What is it?

Comic book

- Do you know who invented comics?

Europeans

Now let me tell you about some holidays that are devoted to certain people. Try to guess from what country they came

Canada (8.09)

Australia (1.09)

TODAY IS...

*...Business
Women's Day*

select your franchise

The USA (22.09)

Scotland (30.11)

Mordred's lullaby

Iribel 2011

Trick or Treat

- Do you know traditional colours of Halloween?

Orange and black

- Do you know What means to see a spider on Halloween?

spirit of a loved one

watching you

- How do we call this?

Jack-o-lantern

I'm pleased to introduce you Leila Gulieva with the song Zombie!

Halloween and students of architecture

Pick your PUMPKIN

Jack

Barker

TRICK OR TREAT
VIDE

A night-time photograph of the Houses of Parliament in London, illuminated with warm yellow lights. The building is reflected in the dark water of the River Thames in the foreground. The sky is dark, filled with numerous large, exploding fireworks in shades of white, purple, and red. The text 'GUY FAWKES DAY' is overlaid in a large, bold, yellow serif font, centered over the image.

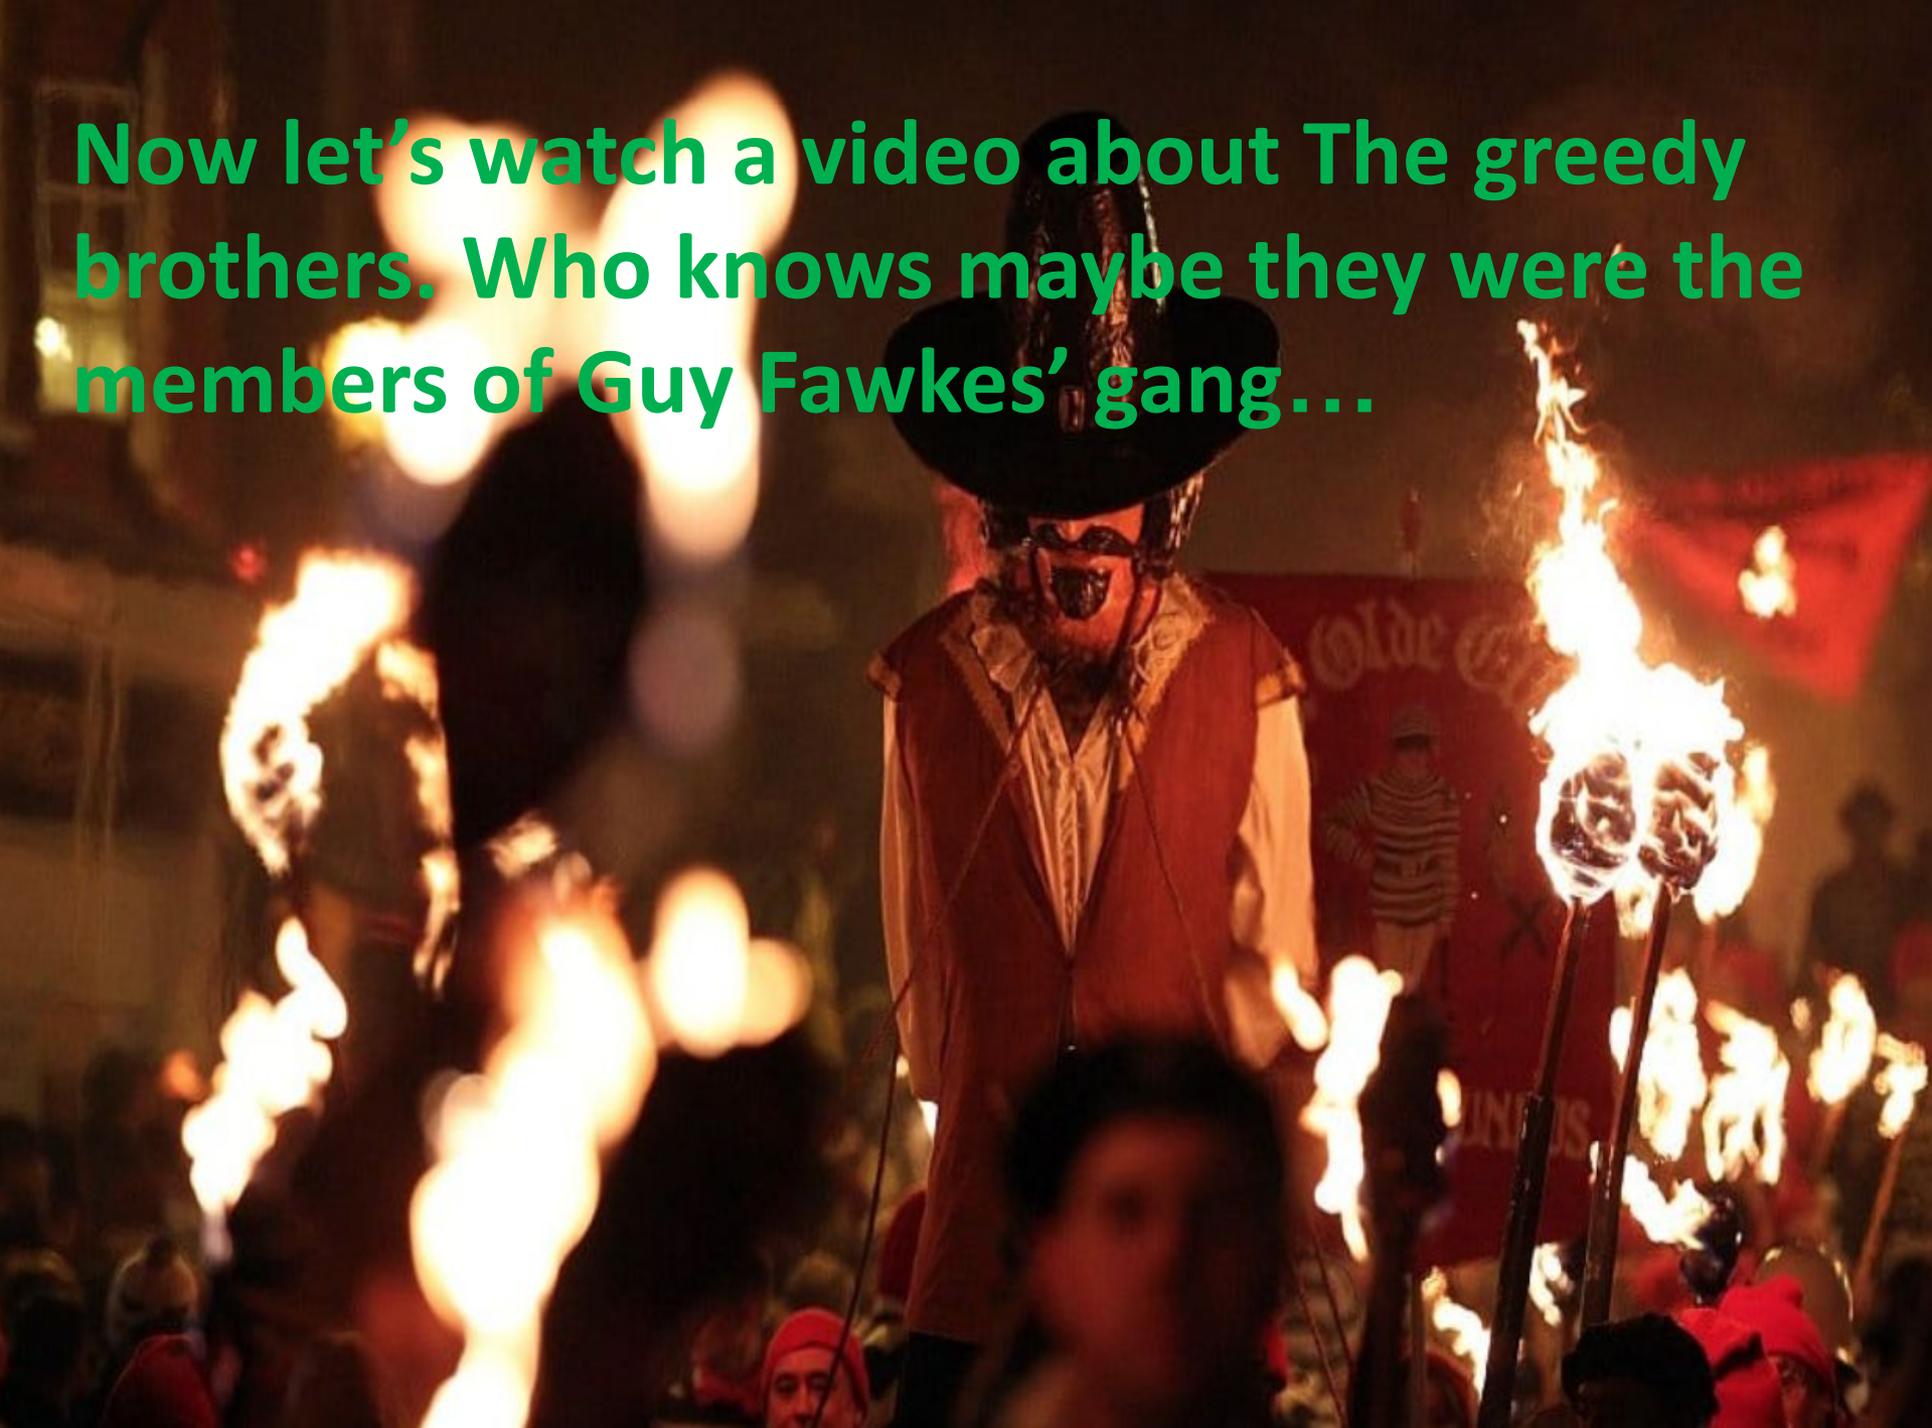

GUY FAWKES DAY

Guy Fawkes and his fellows wanted to blow up the house of Lords during the opening session. Can you guess what was their aim?

variants:

- reigning of catholic king +
- eliminating of parliament -
- ruling by only house of commons -

Now let's watch a video about The greedy brothers. Who knows maybe they were the members of Guy Fawkes' gang...

Horatio Nelson

- Do you know against whom they fought?

Napoleon

- Do you know which place was named after this battle?

Trafalgar square in London

A black silhouette of a soldier in a trench coat and helmet, carrying a rifle, stands on a dark green hill. The background is a light yellow sky.

The 11th of November is well-known as Poppy Day especially in the countries of British Commonwealth. Do you know why?

poppy is a symbol of blood spilled on the battlefields

A field of numerous red poppies with black centers, growing on green stems, set against a dark green background.

How do I Love
Thee?

Let Me Count the Ways

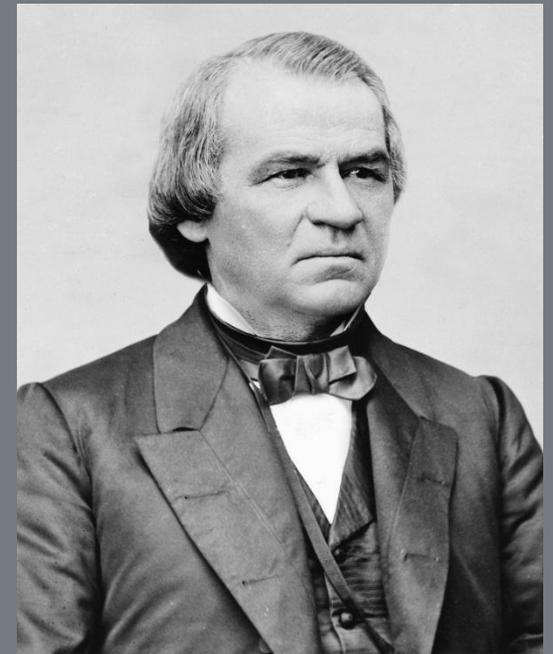

In the USA autumn also holds some historical holidays such as constitution day and citizenship day, Columbus day, Alaska day. Try to guess which president started the tradition of celebrating each of these days.

Citizenship day
George Bush
2001

Columbus day
William Henry Harrison
1892

Alaska day
Andrew Johnson
1867

STEREO

STEREO

Frank Sinatra

Strangers In The Night

arranged and conducted by Nelson Riddle

THE Frank Sinatra
COLLECTION

To wrap up our conversation about holidays we can't help talking about one more important day. If not for it, the USA may not exist nowadays. Can you guess what it is?

Thanksgiving day

Can you name traditional dishes and drinks of this day?

turkey, pumpkin pie,
potatoes, apple cider

WAKE ME UP WHEN
SEPTEMBER ENDS

G. Marco Ayer

