

The 17th of March

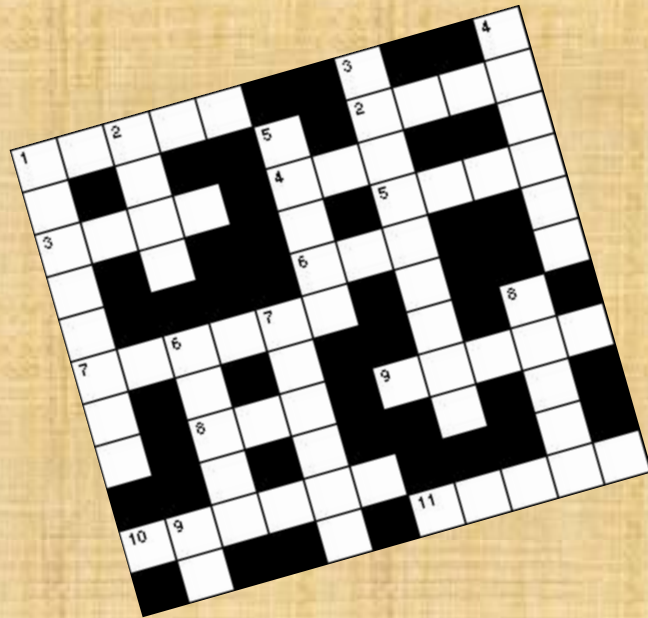

What is the topic of our lesson?

Scotland

What will we do today?

Let's warm up:

Island

Kingdom

Country

capital

Scotland

Wales

Northern Ireland

Which parts are included into Great Britain:

Great Britain

England

Ireland

Scotland

Northern Ireland

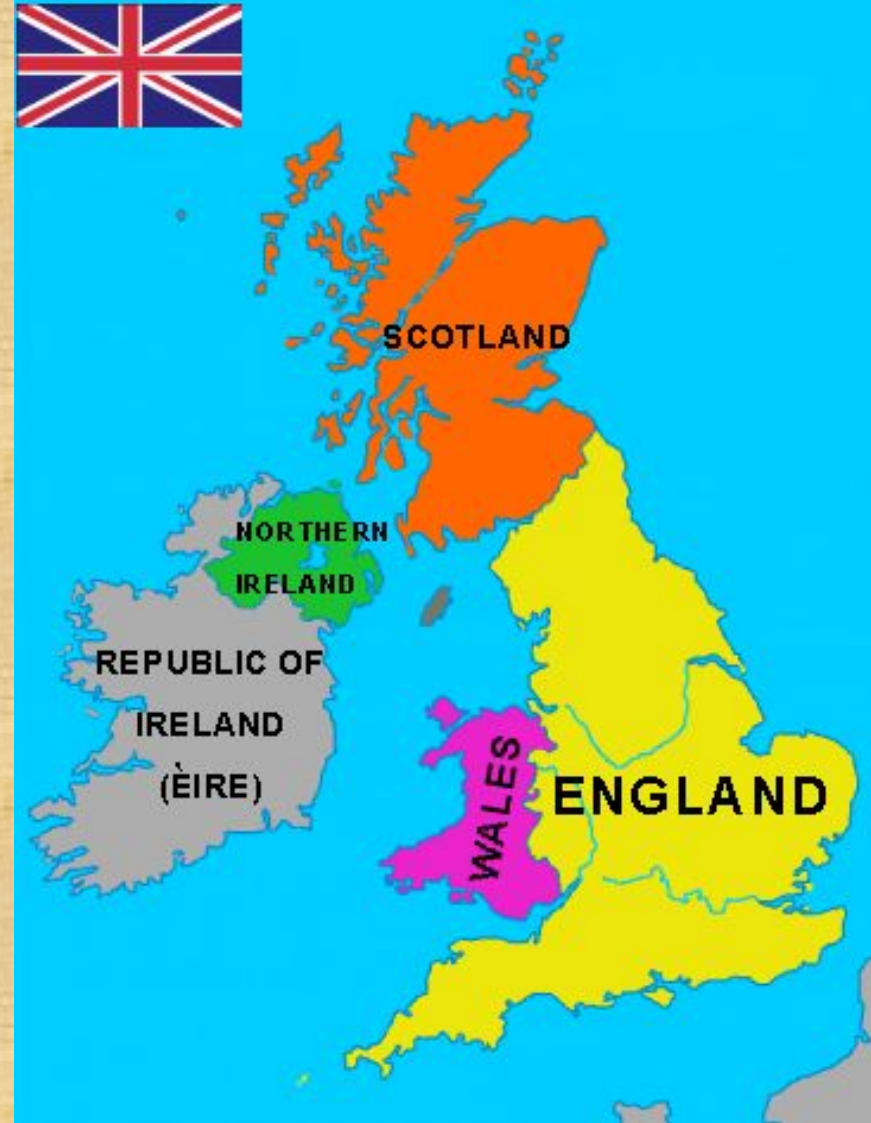

United Kingdom

Wales

 - islands

 - states

 - parts of Great Britain

Mark on the map:

Ireland

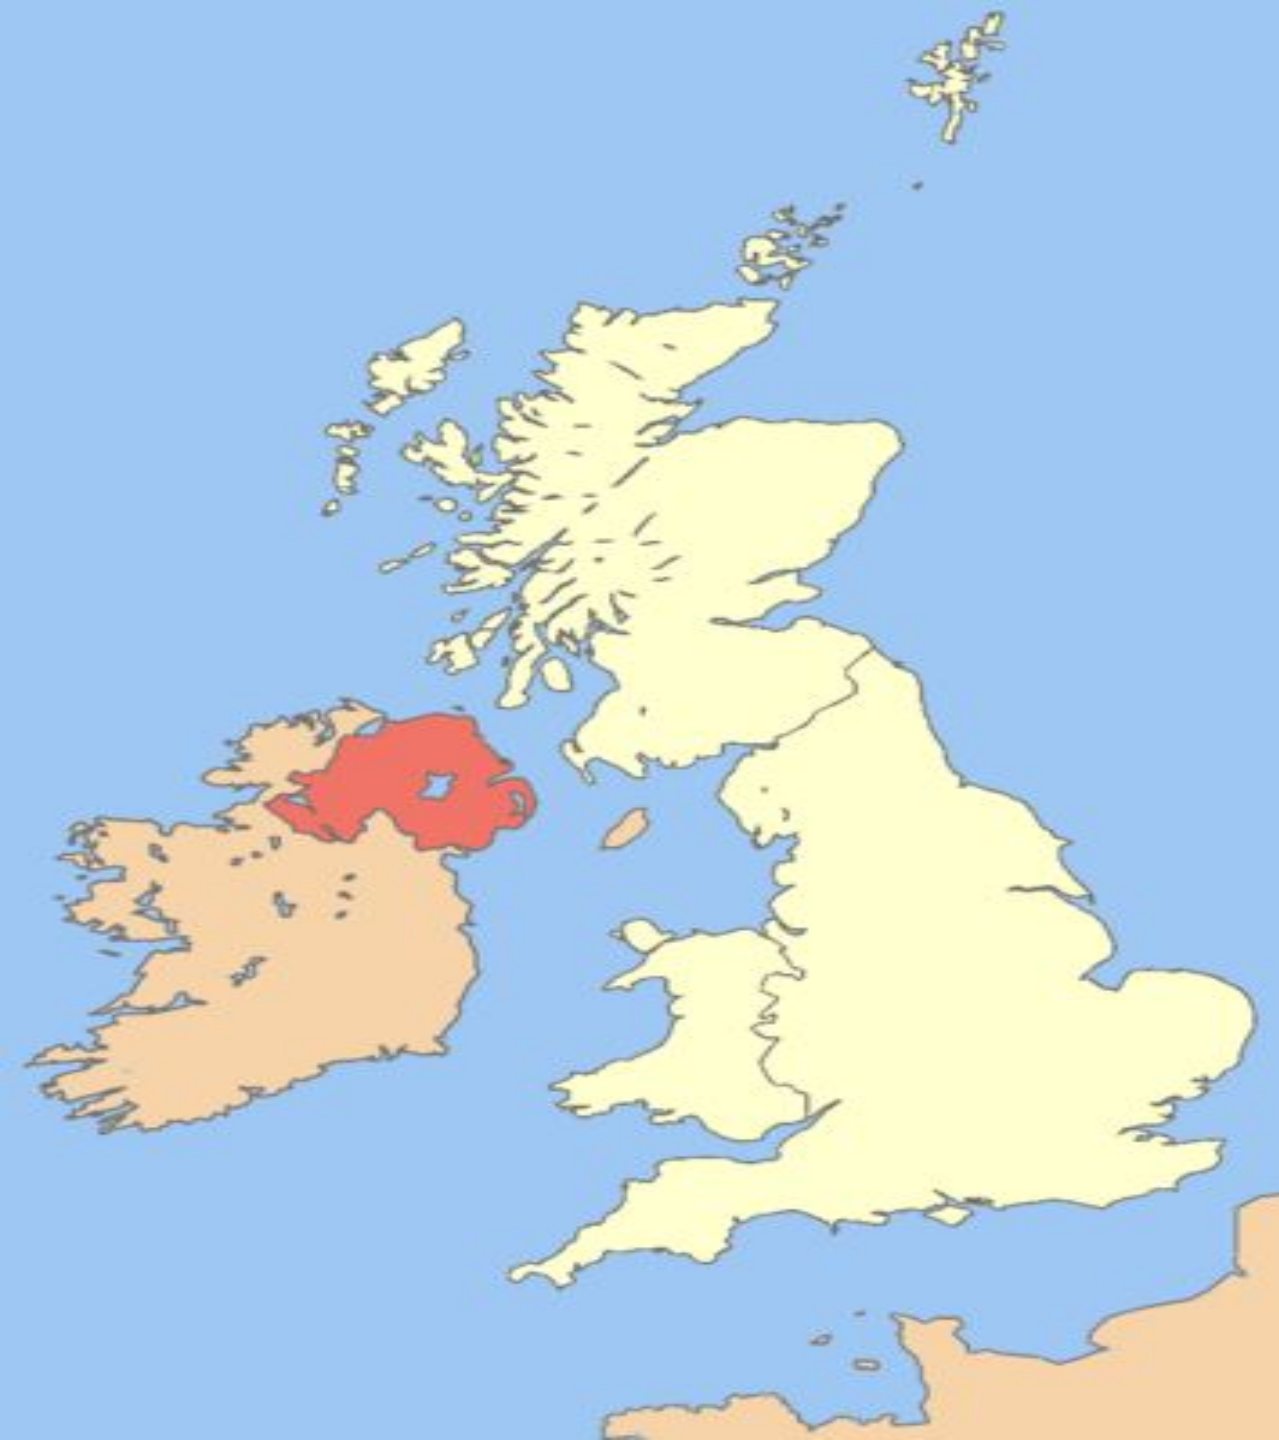

Great Britain

Wales

England

Northern Ireland

Scotland

Choose the odd symbol(s) of the country:

1. Wales:

Red dragon

Fish and chips

daffodil

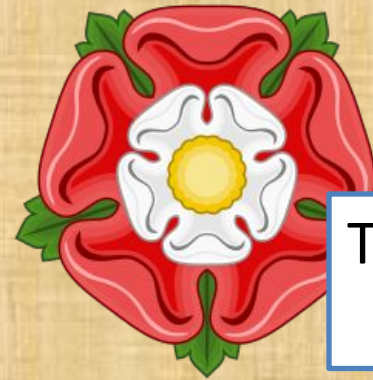

2. England:

Red rose

Flax flowers

Tudor rose

3. Scotland:

thistle

unicorn

tea

What things and events are connected with Scotland? Do the crossword.

Reserve – заповедник

Rare species – редкие виды

Cliff – утес

Puffin ['pʌfɪn] – тупик

Cave – пещера

Wildlife – живая природа

Bluebell ['blu:bel]- колокольчик

Garlic – чеснок

Marsh – болото

To flood – разливаться

Flock – стая

Hike – прогулка

OuterHebrides ['hebrɪdi:z] – Внешние

острова

Names of Scotland's national re

St. Kilda

Find in the text:

4 kinds of birds	2 habitats	3 kinds of animals	2 plants

Match the word with the definition:

1. Cliff

2. Seabird

3. Unique

4. To nest

5. To hike

a) Only one of its kind. Special, unusual.

b) It is a high area of land with a very steep (крутой) side.

c) A bird settles somewhere to lay eggs.

d) To go for a long walk in the country.

e) A bird that lives near the sea.

True or False?

1. St. Kilda has the highest cliffs in Britain.

T

2. St. Kilda is good for surfing.

F

3. Loch Lomond is famous for its seabirds.

F

4. You can see a rare Golden Eagle in Loch Lomond.

T

5. "Insh Marshes" is the name for a desert.

F

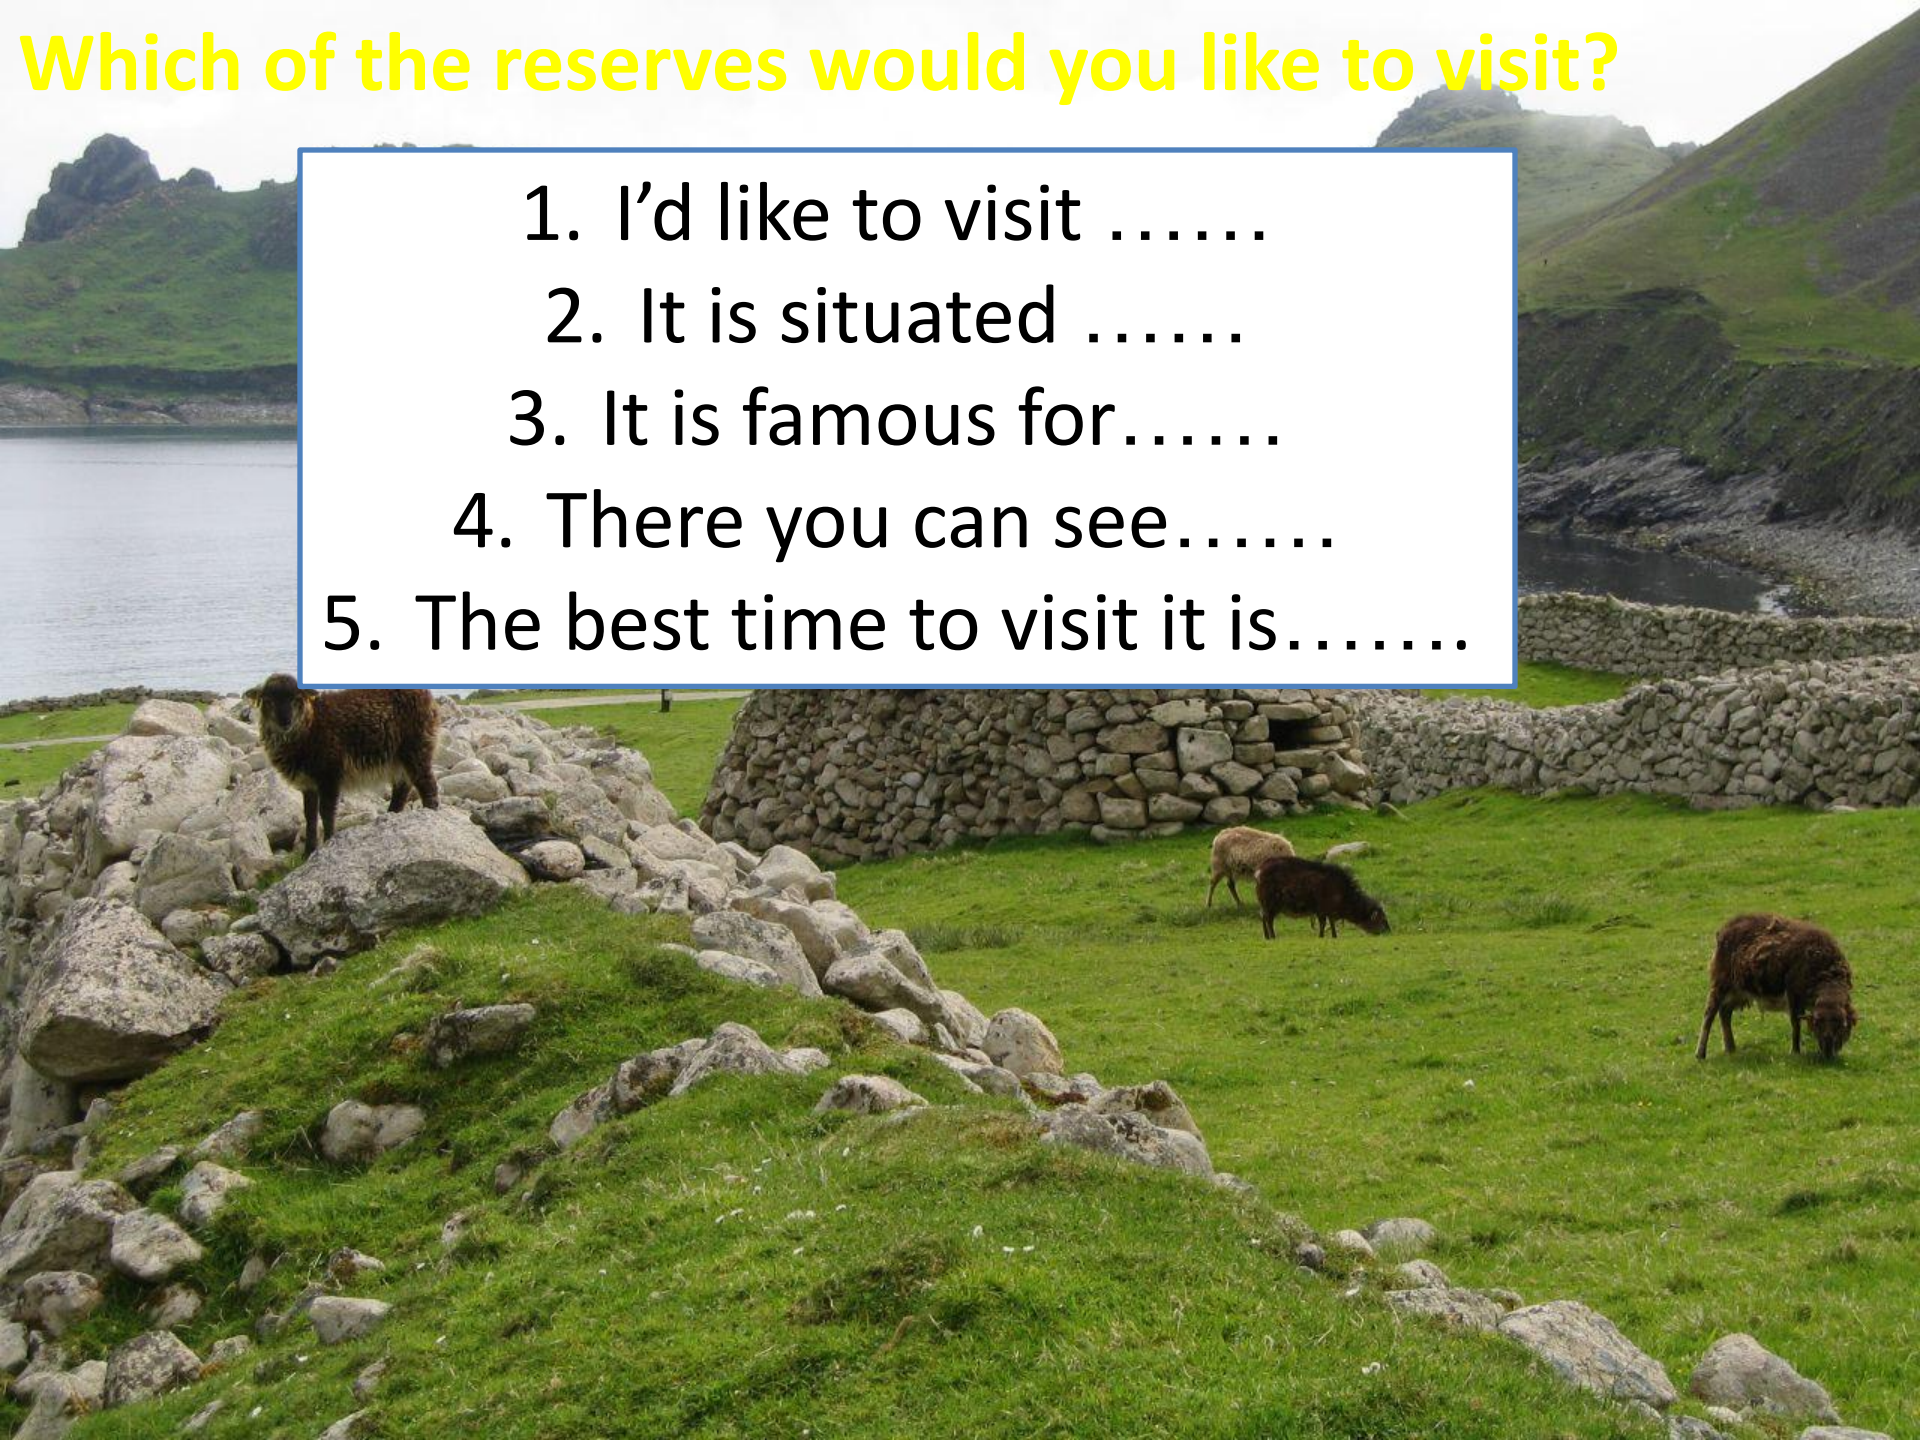

6. Geese live in Insh Marshes.

T

Which of the reserves would you like to visit?

1. I'd like to visit
2. It is situated
3. It is famous for.....
4. There you can see.....
5. The best time to visit it is.....

Home task:
Write an article “Russian national nature reserves” (2-3 reserves).
Draw a picture to your article if you wish.

Thank you for your work!

