

Kazan is very rich in ancient architecture.

Tower Suyumbike is architectural symbol of Kazan.

The tower is a crucially important element of this ancient citade.

The majestic dome and minarets of the mosque Kul Sharif cutting the sky.

Kul Sharif is the main mosque not only of Kazan and Tatarstan, but also of all Tatar people.

The modern mosque Kul Sharif is the symbol of the spiritual revival of the Tatar people.

The city hall building – a magnificent house in Russian empire style promising to become one of the best ornaments of ancient city.

The Kazan city Hall will be a multipurpose building.

Big Concert Hall Named after Salikh Saydash.

For today the State Big Concert Hall Named after Salikh Saydash is the unique complex.

Tatar academic state opera and ballet theatre named after Musa Dzalil.

Tatar academic state opera and ballet theatre named after Musa Dzalil located on one of the main squares of ancient Kazan.

Restaurant complex “The Native Village”

Restaurant complex “The Native Village” wonderful place for people from Kazan and guest.

Our city is very beautiful and there are very many places you can visit.

