

The South East England is one of the most visited regions of the United Kingdom, being situated around the English capital city London and located closest to the Continent.

- The largest city in the region is Brighton and Hove. The dominant influence on the region's economy is neighboring London.

- The highest point is Walbury Hill in Berkshire at 297 meters. But don't think that geographical convenience is the only reason for its popularity;

© Alison Avery | beautifulenglandphotos.uk

- There is much here of interest to the traveler, from varied natural landscapes,

- to historic towns and cities, refined stately homes and others.

- There is also a lot of industry near the Thames and there are a lot of roads and motorways.

The Southeast

- A highly populated region
- A lot of roads and motorways
- London- the capital of the country
- The main passenger ports and airports
- Heathrow Airport

- London, the capital of UK, and such historical cities as Windsor, Dover, and Brighton are situated here.

- Some of the South East's biggest attractions are known the world over: royal Windsor's famous castle

- And Great Park

Oxford's “dreaming spires”

- Dover's White Cliffs are all synonymous with England itself.