Meaning of Victory in the Great Patriotic War in Russia and the world

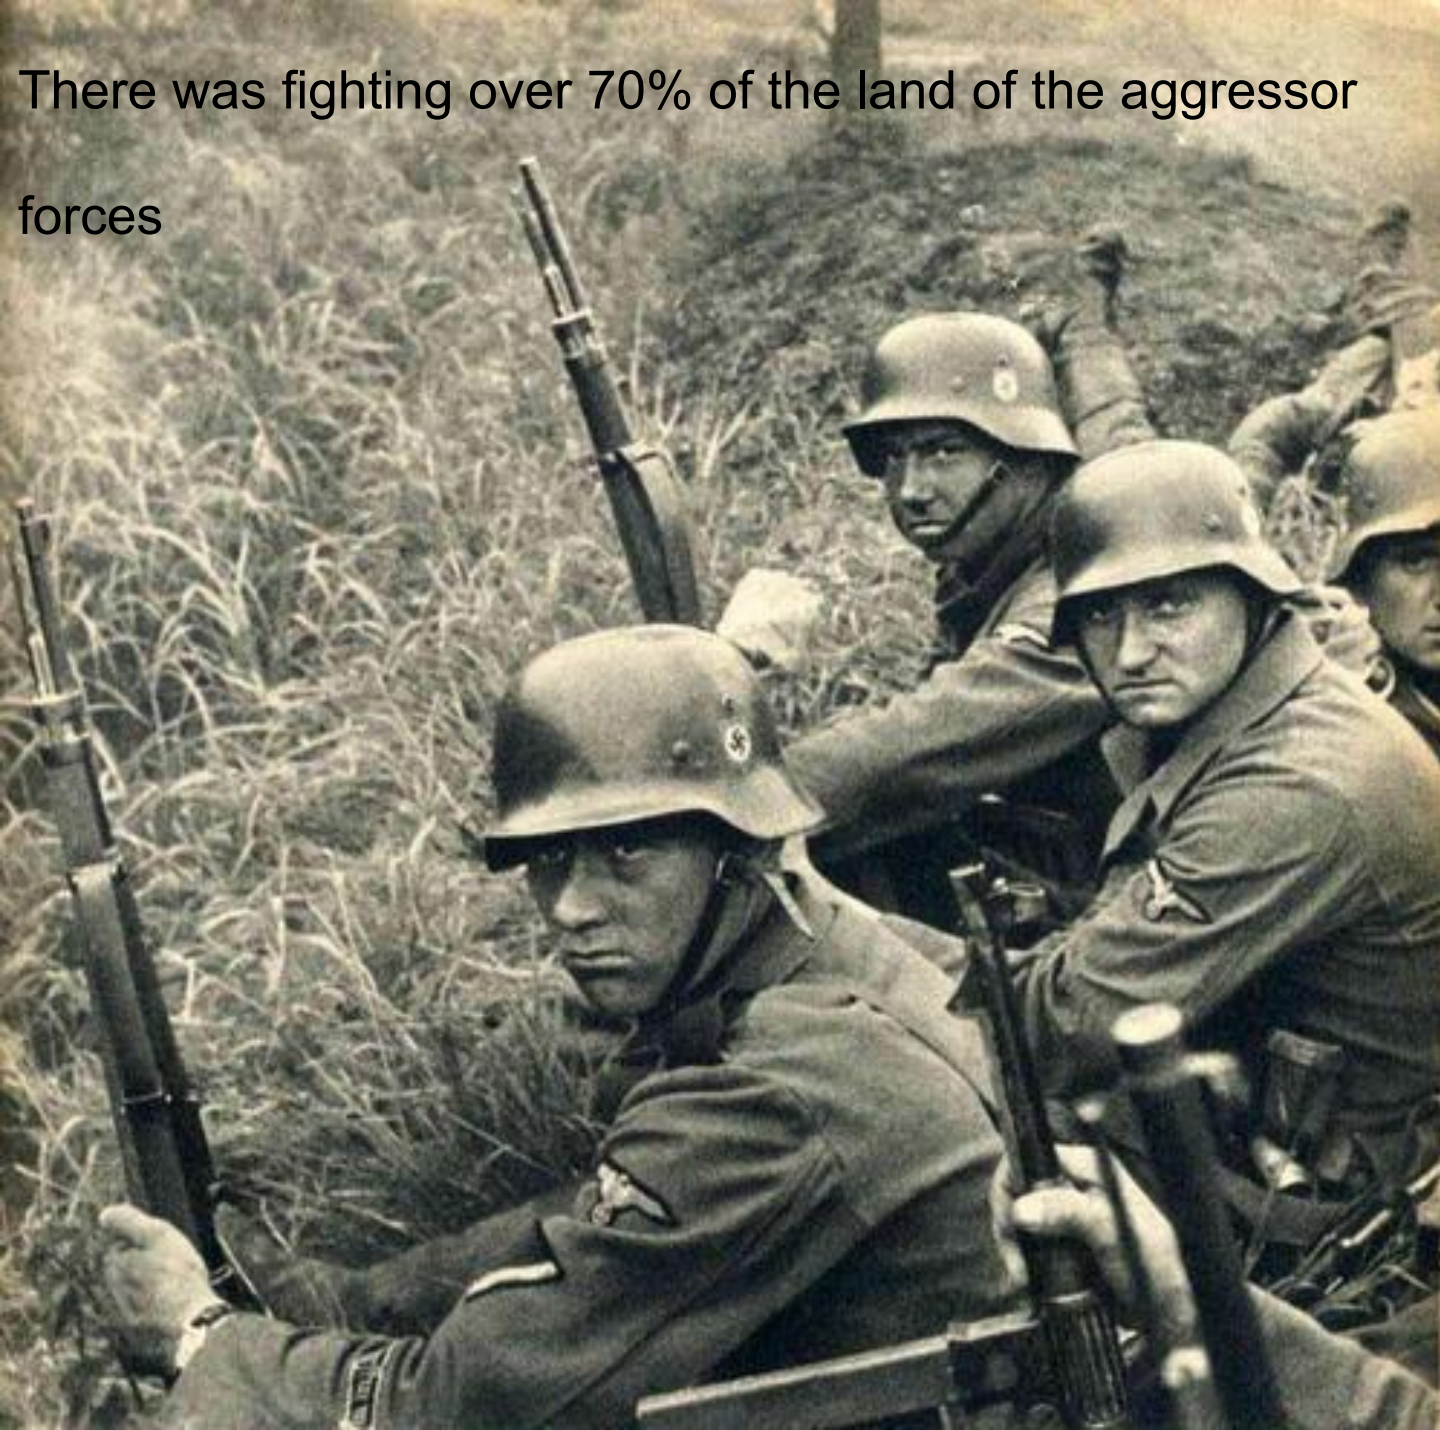

The war against fascism brought the country incalculable loss and destruction

Victory in the Great Patriotic War saved the people of the country and all of humanity from the threat of fascist enslavement.

There was fighting over 70% of the land of the aggressor forces

The Soviet Union had a decisive help the peoples of Europe and Asia in their struggle for national independence

The collapse of the world colonial system

The efforts of a totalitarian regime, more developed personality cult IV Stalin, who was awarded the title of Generalissimo.

The main lesson of the victory was the realization that it is impossible to prevent a new world war!!!

Thank you.
