Thanks to online games, I began to communicate with people from another continents, and to learn the professional slang that I needed
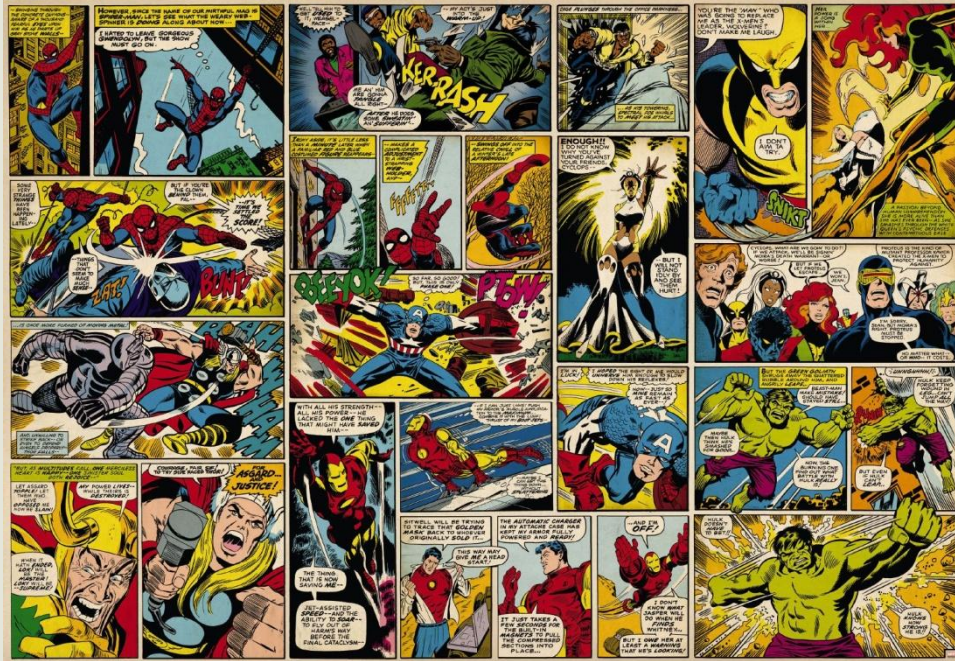

I love SERIALS!!!

The game of thrones, Breaking bad, misfits, supernatural, rick and morti, metalapocalypse and many more modern and cool serials.

MY HOBBIES

I love to draw, and so I like comics. Marvel, DC comics are my universes, I like their characters very much

I love rock concerts!!

The drive that I get is incomparable with the usual listening to music. You understand that there are like-minded people around you who listen to the same thing as you. This crowd energy charge you so much energy, that after a two-hour concert, you go out with torn voice in anticipation of the oasis water.

My wall

I also collect posters from every concert I attended.

MY HOBBIES

For the last year and a half, I've been actively skateboarding - it gives me extreme feelings and I like it.
