Al-Farabi Kazakh National University Structure

Al-Farabi Kazakh National University - the only university in the Republic of Kazakhstan, which has a unique scientific and innovative structure

Research is carried out in accordance with the priorities of the Republic of Kazakhstan and world trends in science and technology

I am a 1st year student at the Faculty of Mechanics and Mathematics at Kaznu University. I studying in Information Security Systems.

SPORTCOMPLEX

Dormitory

On the territory of the campus there is a whole complex for full education and leisure: a beautiful sports complex with a gym, sports grounds and sections, a medical center, a cinema, a network of reading rooms, a powerful library that provides students with the necessary educational literature.

Non-resident students in full-time education are provided with a hostel. In KazNU there are 18 hostels, all of which are distinguished by comfort, security and all conditions for living. In the KazNU student theater, located in KazGUU, weekly film shows and world premieres for students and faculty of the University are being shown.

Thank you for attention!
