Tricks of a supermarket

Nowadays supermarkets are everywhere, you can see them even in smaller towns – let alone big cities. At first supermarkets look so inviting and convenient – just imagine – you can buy practically everything what is necessary to run your household in just one shop.

Moreover, supermarkets seem to have discounts and special offers all the time so it's a nice way to save some money as well. But if you give it a second thought, you will definitely see that supermarkets actually make you buy much more than you have initially planned on. Funnily, you don't think if you really need what's on special offer – it looks such a bargain!

Everything in a supermarket – the music, the smells, the arrangement of goods – just make you spend your money so write a shopping list before entering a supermarket and stick to it.

№2 Study the advertisement.

You are considering going to this shopping centre and now you are calling to find out more information. In 1.5 minutes you are to ask five direct questions to find out the following:

- 1) location
 - 2) transport to get there
 - 3) price policy
 - 4) if there are any special offers at the moment
 - 5) shops and boutiques there
- You have twenty seconds to ask each question.

№3 Imagine that you have taken some photos for your project on shopping habits of your city residents. Choose the one to show to your friend.

In your talk remember to speak about:

- when you took the photo
- what/who is in the photo
- what is happening
- why you took the photo
- why you decided to show the picture to your friend

No4 be ready to compare and contrast the photographs:

- give a brief description of the photos (action, location)
- say what the pictures have in common
- say in what way the pictures are different
- say which kind of shopping presented in the pictures you'd prefer
- explain why
