Simple English words to describe food – video

Today we will talk about food and words to describe food.
Well, let's start!

My favourite word to describe food is the word “sweet”. For example, chocolate, if you can see... there we go! Chocolate, or chocolate chips are very sweet. I like chocolate.

Another flavour that I like is “spicy”. Let me show you.
This one is chilli powder. Chilli powder is very spicy. So if I take chilli powder... It's very spicy! If you eat spicy food, you need water. Ah, that's better.

Sometimes food has lots of salt. Look at this one, this is salt. If food has lots of salt, it is salty, so... I don't like food with lots of salt.

Another word we can use for food and drink is “hot”. For example, tea. If you look here, this one says tea. Tea is hot. So, here I have tea. When I drink it... It is very very hot.

Other foods and other drinks can be cold. For example, milk is cold.

Sometimes food can be crunchy. For example...

Food can also be sour. Here is an example. This is lemon juice. Lemon juice is very sour. Let's taste it. I don't like sour food.
