

AMAZING ANIMALS

An elephant can hold 7 liters of water in its trunk.

It's the only animal with four knees.

The largest fish in the world is the whale shark. It is about 12,5 meters in length and up to 25 tones. But don't worry! It's kind!

The animal with the largest eye in the world is the giant squid. Its eye can be 27 centimeters across.

Spiders spin webs. These are made of silk. Spider's silk is thinner than human hair, but stronger than steel. In New Guinea people use spider's webs to catch fish.

Only humans and some monkeys can see all the color. Many animals see the world in black, white and grey.

The longest rabbit's ears are 77 centimeters
long.

There is fish in Malaysia that can climb trees. It has two fins which it uses like feet. It travels on land to find insects.

Spiders have eight eyes and eight legs.

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS

- How many eyes have spiders got?
- How many knees have elephants got?
  - Who spins webs?
- What animals can see all the color?
- What's the largest fish in the world?
- What animal has got the largest eyes?