The background of the image is a vibrant, repeating pattern of red hearts and stylized floral motifs. The hearts vary in size and are scattered across the white background, creating a romantic and festive atmosphere. The floral patterns are intricate and resemble stylized flowers or leaves, also in shades of red and pink. The overall effect is a dense, decorative backdrop for the text.

Valentine 's Day has roots in several different legends. One of the earliest popular symbols of the day is Cupid, the Roman god of love, who is represented by the image of a young boy with a bow and arrow.

Three hundred years after the death of Jesus Christ, the Roman emperors still demanded that everyone believe in the Roman gods. Valentine, a Christian priest, had been thrown in prison for his teachings. On February 14, Valentine was beheaded. The night before he was executed, he wrote the cell to children and friends who missed him.

Another legend tells us that this same Valentine, well-lowed by ail, wrote notes from his jail February 14 was also a Roman holiday, held in honour of a goddess. Young man

Valentine's Day is now a day for sweethearts. It is the day that you show your friend or loved one that you care. You can send candy to someone you think is special. Or you can send roses, the flower of love. Most people send "valentines", a greeting card named after the notes that Valentine wrote from jail. Valentines can be sentimental, romantic and heartfelt. They can be funny and friendly. If the sender is shy, valentine can be anonymous.

Americans of all ages love to send and receive valentines. Handmade valentines are created by cutting hearts out of coloured paper. Valentines can be heart-shaped, or have hearts, the symbol of love, on them. In elementary schools, children make valentines for their classmates and put them in a large decorated box, similar to a mailbox. On February 14, the teachers open the box and distribute the valentines to each student. After the students read their valentines, they have a small party with refreshments.
