5

The prejudice jury convicts Tom, though he is obviously innocent. He is shot while trying to escape from prison.

6

Bob Ewell, still furious at Atticus, attacks Jem and Scout in the woods at night. A mysterious stranger scares them and kills Mr. Ewell.

7

The stranger was Boo Radley, who Scout now sees as a friend and protector. The sheriff turns a blind eye to Boo's act of murder. Scout walks Boo home.

TOP-10 BEST QUOTES:

- “You never really understand a person until you consider things from his point of view... Until you climb inside of his skin and walk around in it.”
- “Until I feared I would lose it, I never loved to read. One does not love breathing.”
- “I wanted you to see what real courage is, instead of getting the idea that courage is a man with a gun in his hand. It's when you know you're licked before you begin, but you begin anyway and see it through no matter what.
- Atticus Finch”

- “People generally see what they look for, and hear what they listen for.”
- “The one thing that doesn't abide by majority rule is a person's conscience.”
- “Atticus told me to delete the adjectives and I'd have the facts.”
- “I think there's just one kind of folks. Folks.”
- “Atticus, he was real nice.”

“Most people are, Scout, when you finally see them.”

- “People in their right minds never take pride in their talents.”

- “Sometimes the Bible in the hand of one man is worse than a whisky bottle in the hand of (another)... There are just some kind of men who - who're so busy worrying about the next world they've never learned to live in this one, and you can look down the street and see the results.”
