

Maria Salomea Skłodowska

time4woman.ucoz.com

Maria Curie was born in Warsaw on the 7th of November, 1867.

The sisters Sklodowski - Maria and Bronislava - agreed in turn to work for several years as governesses in order to get education in turns. Maria worked for several years as a governess educator while Bronislava studied at a medical institute in Paris. Then, when Bronislava became a doctor, in 1891 Maria, at the age of 24, was able to travel to Paris

Maria Sklodowska was born in Warsaw in the family of the teacher Vladislav Sklodowski, where, in addition to Mary, three more daughters and a son grew up. Her sisters and brother were Zofia , Jozef, Bronislava and Helena

