New Year

New Year is a holiday coming at the moment of transition from the last day of the year to the first day of the next year. It is celebrated by many peoples in accordance with the adopted calendar.

History New Year!)

- The date of the New Year from different peoples • The old New Year - only in Russia and some post-Soviet countries such a controversial name is possible. The day ends with a series of New Year holidays in the country. • New Year according to the lunar calendar is confined to the second new moon after the winter solstice, and each year falls on different dates. China is famous for the most magnificent New Year celebrations. • The Muslim New Year for Hijra is celebrated on the first day of the holy month of Muharram. And since the Muslim year has 354 lunar days, the holiday is constantly shifting.

- Buddhist New Year Sagaalga falls in different years for the period between the end of January and the middle of March, and is celebrated in the first spring new moon. • Thai New Year From 13 to 15 April, from Monday to Friday from 11 to 18 April. • On August 11, Navasard, National Identity Day, is celebrated in Armenia, which earlier marked the beginning of a new annual cycle. Today the New Year celebrations are held here, as in most countries of the post-Soviet space, on the night of December 31 to January 1. • The Slavic New Year was celebrated on September 14 (or September 1 according to the old style).

Santa Claus

Santa Claus is the main fairy-tale character at the New Year holiday, the East Slavic version of the Christmas giver [the source is not specified 42 days]. The creation of the canonical image of Santa Claus as an obligatory character of the New Year - and not the Christmas - holiday took place in the Soviet era and dates back to the late 1930s, when after several years of prohibition the tree was again allowed. The prototype of Santa Claus is the Slavic deity - master of winter, cold and frost

Traditions of the New Year

- New Year always gives us hope for the best, gives a lot of gifts and pleasant emotions. During this period we can easily feel like heroes of a fairy tale. We all remember childhood, perceiving what is happening around the eyes of the child. Everyone wants so much to believe in Santa Claus and Snow Maiden, who will surely come to visit us and that somewhere far away, in the cold regions, there is a beautiful Snow Queen. Some will not agree with me, but in the soul this happens to everyone. And the New Year is to blame for everything - the time of fulfillment of the most cherished desires. The main thing is to adjust only to good, kind, and all desires will come true

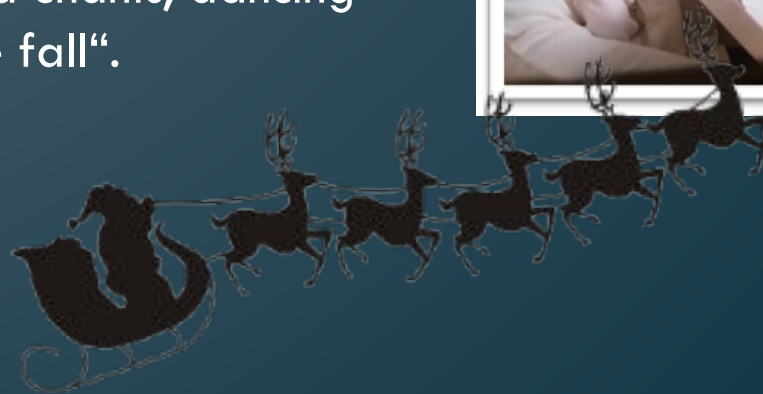

Homeland of Santa Claus

Great Ustyug began to position himself as the birthplace of Santa Claus less than fifteen years ago, but the fame of this place has already spread throughout Russia. Every winter, children and adults from different cities of the country come to visit the fairy-tale character to plunge into the amazing atmosphere of the holiday and get acquainted with the real Santa Claus.

As needed to conduct New Year

Celebrate New Year's holiday is best in the circle of close people. It's good if the whole family gathers at the New Year's table. You can invite your closest friends. Meet the Year Dogs need no special "luxuries", it is better if the situation is not solemn, but more homely and cozy. Categorically, binge and frivolous behavior, loud chants, dancing "before the fall".

What to celebrate the New Year?

- To begin with, you need to determine the color gamut, which must be strictly maintained. It is best to choose an outfit of one or two primary colors, as well as one auxiliary shade. It is permissible and the mixture of colors, most importantly - that the outfit is not lurid and tasteless.

As the New-year table must be decorated

Given that the dog is unpretentious in food, at any rate, it is not a gourmet and is not interested in delicacies, New Year's dishes should be the most common. Of course, decorating them with greens, vegetables and fruits is possible and even necessary, but the availability of any expensive gastronomic delights will be superfluous.

Another tip that applies to all dishes, except desserts: cook as many meat dishes as possible. After all, dogs are crazy about this.
