Oxford - the University Town

- This university town is very beautiful. The oldest university there is Oxford. The first of its colleges was founded in 1249. The university now has thirty-five colleges and about thirteen thousand students, many of them from other countries.
- Most students in these private schools take business, secretarial or English language courses.
- Some of the most intelligent men and women in the country live and work here. Oxford gives them what they need: a quiet atmosphere, friendly colleagues and the four-hundred-year-old library, which has about five million books.
- Oxford has some of the finest architecture in Britain. Some of their colleges, libraries are there, four and even five hundred years old. You can see there many lovely gardens, where the students can read and relax in the summer months.
