

Let's visit London!

We are going to travel by double-decker bus.

London is the capital of Great Britain.

Buckingham palace

Buckingham Palace
is the official residence of Queen Elizabeth. There are 775 rooms.
When the Queen is in the residence, a flag flies over Buckingham Palace.

Hyde Park

The background of the slide is a light yellow color with a faint, stylized map of London. A prominent compass rose is visible on the left side, with the letters 'S', 'E', 'W', and 'N' indicating the cardinal directions. The map shows various streets and landmarks, though they are not clearly legible.

Hyde Park is a big park in central London. Today it is a popular place for meetings, celebrations and festivals. There is a gallery, a museum and several sculptures on the territory of Hyde Park.

And also there is a famous lake
Serpentine where people can swim.

Big Ben

Big Ben is the name of the Great bell of the clock at the Palace of Westminster. The height of the tower is 96,3 metres.

Oxford Street

Oxford Street is a shopping street in the centre of London. There are hundreds of shops in this street. The street is 1,9 km long.

The London Eye

The London Eye is one the largest Ferris wheels in Europe. The wheel looks like a big bicycle wheel.

Madam Tussaud's Museum

The most famous museum of waxworks. It presents all famous people from singers and actors to Prime Ministers and Presidents.

The Thames

The longest and most famous river in the UK.

Popular tourist activities are river excursions and water-bus or boat trips.
