

VERITAS – [ИСТИНА], ДЕВИЗ ГАРВАРДА.

About the Institute

HARVARD UNIVERSITY

- One of the most famous universities in the USA and around the world, the oldest University in the USA. Located in Cambridge, Massachusetts. As of 2010, Harvard has about 2,100 teachers and about 6,700 students and 14,500 graduate students
- Harvard was founded on September 8, 1636

The President of Harvard

- Drew Gilpin Faust
 - September 18, 1947, new York city) was an American historian and the first female President of Harvard University.

Harvard includes

- Higher school of arts and Sciences (1872)
- School of engineering and applied Sciences (2007)
- Department of continuing education, which includes: Harvard summer school (1871)
- School of advanced education (1910)
- Harvard medical school (1782)
- Harvard school of dental medicine (1867)
- Harvard Institute of theology (1816)
- Harvard law school (1817)
- Harvard business school (1908)
- Higher school of design (1914)
- Harvard graduate school of education (1920)
- Institute of public health (1922)
- Harvard Institute of public administration. John F. Kennedy (1936)

Symbolism

- A symbol of Harvard is crimson, the same color of the Harvard sports teams and University newspaper. The color was chosen by vote and received 1800 student votes, although the Association of the University with different shades of red can be traced back to 1858, when the young graduate student Charles William Elliott, and later the President of the University, bought red bandanas for his team so that participants could distinguish them during the annual regatta.

Sport

- Sports team "Harvard Crimson" (letters. "Harvard crimson") takes part in competitions in 41 sports in the National Association of student sports among the universities of the United States.

Graduates

- Harvard University graduated 8 us presidents (John Adams, John Quincy Adams, Rutherford Hayes, Theodor Roosevelt, Franklin Roosevelt, John Kennedy, George W. Bush, Barack Obama).

END