

Australian cities

Canberra

Canberra is the capital of Australia. This city is called "green".

In the parks you will see trees from around the world and along the roads are growing flowering shrubs (кустарники)

The Australian war Museum

Captain James Cook Memorial

This is interesting!

- Canberra became capital of Australia as a result of the compromise between Sydney and Melbourne. Australians could not choose and eventually placed the capital between the competing cities

Sydney

Sydney is the largest city of Australia. There you will find modern skyscrapers and old buildings, peaceful parks and lively beaches.
