

John Fitzgerald Kennedy

by Chumakov Andrew, Igonin George and Karev Nikita

Form 9 «AG»

Teachers

Y. S. Shavyrina

E. I. Polaykova

Moscow 2015

John Kennedy's merits

- He went down in history as the 35th President of the USA
- Kennedy launched initiation of the space program Apollo
- He organized the operation Bay of pigs Invasion

Parents

Kennedy's father Joseph Patrick Kennedy was a politician and businessman. Also he worked in Embassy of the US.

Kennedy's mother Rosa Elizabeth Fitzgerald was philanthropist. She studied at Catholic school. Later she graduated from Manhattanville College.

Young ages

John Kennedy was born in 1917 in Brookline, Massachusetts. He graduated from Princeton University. During the World War II Kennedy served in Office of Naval Intelligence.

Politic career

After the war John Kennedy was elected in The United States House of Representatives of the state Massachusetts. He became a senator in 1953. Kennedy, presidential candidate of the Democratic, won the elections, when he was 43.

Presidency

John Kennedy tried to deal with such problems like tyranny and poverty. He fought for the equal rights for black nation. And once Kennedy said: “Ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country”.

Death

Unfortunately John Kennedy was murdered on the 22th of November 1963 in Dallas (Texas). President Kennedy was taken to the operating room where he died 30 minutes later.

We have chosen to speak about John Kennedy, because he was a great president of the US. Also he had many achievements in politics such as Cuban Missile Crisis, Berlin Crisis in 1961, and space race between the USSR and the US, which led to the beginning of the space program "Apollo". Also it has taken serious steps for the equation of the rights of blacks.

Thank you for attention