

Four foreigners who live in Britain talk about the things people say about the British...

British people drink tea at 5.00. Kati from Hungary

It's true that British people drink a lot of tea (and coffee) but they don't drink tea at a special time. I work for a British company here and my boss drinks tea all the time.

It rains a lot. Nicolai from Russia

It rains a lot, but it doesn't rain every day. Be careful because the weather changes quickly. I always take an umbrella when I go out.

British people like animals. Norma from Mexico

I have a lot of friends here and they all have a dog or a cat. One family that I know has two dogs and five cats. British people love animals!

The food in Britain isn't very good. Hasan from Turkey

The restaurants are quite expensive but they are great, and the food is good in a lot of pubs, too. I share a flat with a Scottish boy, and he cooks every night. He watches all the cooking programmes on TV and he makes great curries!

Four foreigners who live in the US talk about the things people say about Americans...

Americans eat fast food every day. Pei from China

It's true that Americans eat a lot of fast food, but they don't eat fast food every day. I share an apartment with an American woman, and she cooks all the time. She only eats fast food on some days—with me!

The sun shines a lot in Southern California. Alberto from Mexico

The weather changes quickly in many places in the US, but not in Southern California. The sun shines a lot there. It doesn't shine every day, but be careful when it shines. It gets very hot! I always wear sunglasses when I go out.

Americans like animals. Naomi from Japan

I have a lot of friends here and many of them have a dog, a cat, or a bird. One American family that I know has a dog, a cat, and two birds. American people love animals!

Americans are always loud. Gianni from Italy

Some Americans are very loud, but I work with an American man at a coffee shop, and he's really quiet and polite. He doesn't talk very much. But he's a very nice guy!

Mark Vanhoenacker, an American journalist who lives in London, says the UK's not just OK – it's paradise. These are some of his reasons...

Walking

Britain isn't a good place for cyclists. But for pedestrians it is wonderful. When you walk on a zebra crossing, all the drivers stop.

Banks

British banks are great – you do everything online, and you don't pay when you take money out of an ATM. And if you want to change banks, the banks do all the work, not you.

Drivers

The British are very polite when they drive. They don't hoot, and they are patient with other drivers. They always say thank you when you let them pass.

Boots the Chemist

Chemists in the UK are wonderful, friendly shops and completely different from US pharmacies. Boots sells everything you want, not just medicine, and the shop assistants give you good advice.

No ID Cards

Britain is one of the only places in the world where people don't have ID cards. In the US you need ID when you buy a drink, go to a club, use a credit card, or take an intercity train.

Summers

I love British summers! A good summer day in Britain is dry and warm, but not very hot.

Starbucks

Starbucks isn't British, of course, but I prefer the Starbucks in Britain. They are nice, friendly places where people read the newspaper and drink good coffee. And the waiters don't write your name on the cups – I feel stupid in America when the waiter calls 'Mark, your tall cappuccino with extra chocolate!'

- 1 Britain is a good country for cyclists and pedestrians.
- 2 It's expensive to use ATMs in Britain.
- 3 British drivers are nice to other drivers.
- 4 Boots the Chemist only has medicine.
- 5 In Britain people don't have ID cards.
- 6 Summers in Britain are very hot.
- 7 In Starbucks in Britain waiters don't use your first name.

Coffee

American cups of coffee are very big! A small cup of coffee in the US is like a large cup of coffee in Australia. If you're in a hurry, you go to a drive-through and buy coffee from your car. It's so easy!

Malls

I love shopping, and in the US, the malls are very big. People walk around and shop for hours. US malls have many different stores, and the salespeople are friendly and help you find things.

Fall

I love the fall weather in the US. A good fall day in California is cool, but not too cold. I also love the trees. They change from green to yellow, red, and brown.

State Parks

California has 278 state parks, and they are beautiful. On the weekends, I bring my family to a state park in my area. We explore the forest, find small animals, and enjoy the tall redwood trees.

Freeways

I prefer the roads in the US. The freeways are very fast, and in California they have a lot of car lanes. It's really easy to drive from one place to another.

Theme Parks

Theme parks are very popular in the US, and we live near the Great America Theme Park.

Red Robin

Red Robin is a restaurant that has great hamburgers.

I don't eat meat, but I like the french fries and lemonade at Red Robin. I think the fried cheese sticks are fantastic, but sometimes they aren't on the menu. Maybe that's because they aren't very healthy!

My children like the rides and water slides. Sometimes the lines for the rides are long, but that's OK. We need rest!

- 1 A large cup of coffee in Australia is the same as a small cup of coffee in the US.
- 2 California doesn't have a lot of state parks.
- 3 Jenny doesn't like the salespeople in shopping malls.
- 4 The fall is very cold in California.
- 5 It's easy to drive in the US.
- 6 Jenny doesn't like the long lines for rides at theme parks.
- 7 Jenny eats hamburgers and French fries at Red Robin.

Three people say what they think...

- 1 Our uniform is OK. I like the colours, grey and red. The only things I don't like are the tie, because it's difficult to put on, and the skirt, because I prefer trousers. I think uniforms are a good idea. Everybody looks the same, and it's easy to get dressed in the morning – I don't need to think about what to wear.
- 2 Our uniform is dark trousers and a white nylon top, a bit like a nurse's uniform. We can't wear anything over the uniform, so it's quite cold in the winter, and it gets dirty very easily because it's white. I'm not against uniforms, but my uniform just isn't practical!
- 3 Our uniform is very simple – a dark blue jacket and trousers and a white shirt and tie. I like it, it's nice and comfortable, so I'm happy to wear it. And I think it's important that people can see where we are when they need help.

- 1 Sarah is at school.
- 2 Marie is a chemist.
- 3 Jon is a flight attendant.

Nico is a chef and has his own restaurant, the Blue Jar. He lives in Chile with his wife and her three children, aged 16, 12, and 9.

0630 I get up and make breakfast for the children. Then I have breakfast – a coffee and cereal – and I read the sports section of the paper.

0715 I go to the market to buy fruit and vegetables for the restaurant.

0845 When I get to the restaurant I check the reservations and my emails, and plan the special menu of the day. I have my second cup of coffee.

1030 I start cooking. The radio is on, and we are busy with breakfast orders, but we also have to prepare the food for lunch.

1200 I check the tables, and have my third coffee.

1330 Suddenly everyone arrives at the same time and the restaurant is full (on a good day). I start to shout instructions at the chefs and waiters. We make lunch for 85 people in about an hour and a half.

1445 I come into the restaurant and talk to the customers, and ask if they are happy with the food. I'm really hungry now.

1530 Finally I have lunch. I don't enjoy it very much because I don't have time to relax.

- 1600 After lunch I go back to the kitchen and plan the food for the evening menu.
- 1730 I go home to be with the family for a couple of hours. The children do their homework and I make their dinner.
- 1930 I go back to the restaurant, which is full again, and I check everything is OK.
- 2200 I go home and have a shower. Then I collapse on the sofa with a sandwich and a glass of wine.
- 2300 I go to bed, ready to start again the next day.

My favourite day of the week is Saturday, because it's the first day of the weekend!

I get up very early during the week, so on Saturday it's nice to get up late, and I always stay in bed until about 10.30. Then I usually go shopping with a friend. In Spain shops are closed on Sundays, so Saturday is the only day for shopping. We don't always buy anything, but we have fun just looking.

I often have lunch with my mother and my brother. It's great because my mum is a really good cook and she always makes things we like, and my brother and I have time to talk about our week. After lunch I sometimes study from about 4.00 to 6.00, especially if I have exams.

In the evening I usually go out with my friends. We often go to the cinema, and then we have a pizza or tapas. I never go to bed before 1.00, or sometimes later.
