

Monolingual dictionaries

dachshund

n [c]

a type of small dog with short legs and a long body

I have a dog. It is a fixed-price.

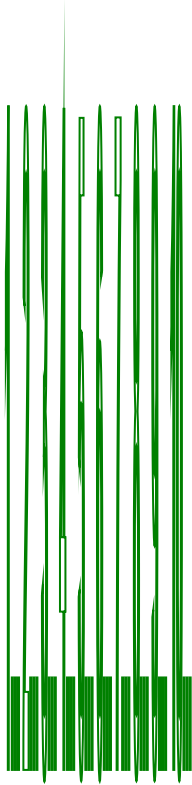

I have a dog. It is a dachshund.

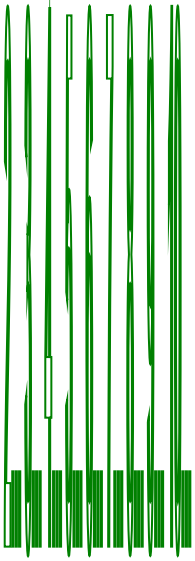

Which options does a monolingual dictionary provide?

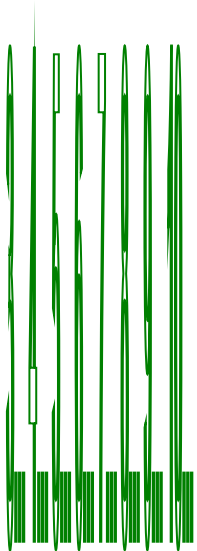

Which options does a monolingual dictionary provide?

1. Definition

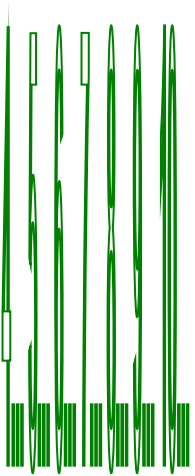

Which options does a monolingual dictionary provide?

1. Definition
2. Pronunciation

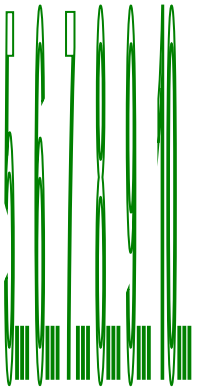

Which options does a monolingual dictionary provide?

1. Definition
2. Pronunciation
3. Register

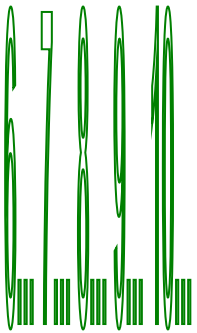

Which options does a monolingual dictionary provide?

1. Definition
2. Pronunciation
3. Register
4. Frequency

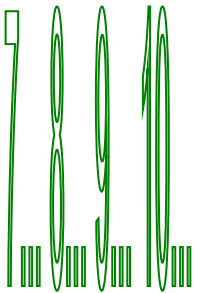

Which options does a monolingual dictionary provide?

1. Definition
2. Pronunciation
3. Register
4. Frequency
5. Spelling

Which options does a monolingual dictionary provide?

1. Definition
2. Pronunciation
3. Register
4. Frequency
5. Spelling
6. Different parts of speech

Verb phrases

.7 Look at the entry for get. Use a phrase with get to complete the sentences.

- 1 I put my clothes on quickly. I _____ quickly.
- 2 We were shocked when we heard the news. We _____ when we heard the news.
- 3 We married in a registry office. We _____ in a registry office.
- 4 I started talking to him. I _____ to him.
- 5 I haven't read very much of my book. I haven't _____ with my book.

Verb phrases

7 Look at the entry for get. Use a phrase with get to complete the sentences.

1 I put my clothes on quickly.

I got dressed quickly.

2 We were shocked when we heard the news.

We _____ when we heard the news.

3 We married in a registry office.

We _____ in a registry office.

4 I started talking to him.

I _____ to him.

5 I haven't read very much of my book.

I haven't _____ with my book.

Verb phrases

7 Look at the entry for get. Use a phrase with get to complete the sentences.

1 I put my clothes on quickly.

I got dressed quickly.

2 We were shocked when we heard the news.

We got a shock when we heard the news.

3 We married in a registry office.

We _____ in a registry office.

4 I started talking to him.

I _____ to him.

5 I haven't read very much of my book.

I haven't _____ with my book.

Verb phrases

7 Look at the entry for get. Use a phrase with get to complete the sentences.

1 I put my clothes on quickly.

I got dressed quickly.

2 We were shocked when we heard the news.

We got a shock when we heard the news.

3 We married in a registry office.

We got married in a registry office.

4 I started talking to him.

I _____ to him.

5 I haven't read very much of my book.

I haven't _____ with my book.

Verb phrases

7 Look at the entry for get. Use a phrase with get to complete the sentences.

1 I put my clothes on quickly.

I got dressed quickly.

2 We were shocked when we heard the news.

We got a shock when we heard the news.

3 We married in a registry office.

We got married in a registry office.

4 I started talking to him.

I got talking to him.

5 I haven't read very much of my book.

I haven't _____ with my book.

Verb phrases

7 Look at the entry for get. Use a phrase with get to complete the sentences.

1 I put my clothes on quickly.

I got dressed quickly.

2 We were shocked when we heard the news.

We got a shock when we heard the news.

3 We married in a registry office.

We got married in a registry office.

4 I started talking to him.

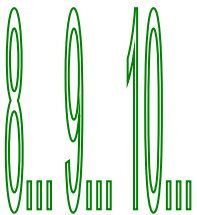

I got talking to him.

5 I haven't read very much of my book.

I haven't got far with my book.

Which options does a monolingual dictionary provide?

1. Definition
2. Pronunciation
3. Register
4. Frequency
5. Spelling
6. Different parts of speech
7. Collocations

D Vocabulary building

19.5 Look at the Vocabulary building note at laugh and replace the verb in these sentences.

- 1 He laughed to himself as he remembered the funny story she'd told him. _____
- 2 There's no need for you to laugh. You sometimes make mistakes, too. _____
- 3 The old woman laughed horribly, like a witch in a children's story. _____
- 4 When the teacher asked them what they were doing, the girls laughed nervously. _____
- 5 'I don't believe it!' he laughed. That's the funniest thing I've seen in my life! _____

D Vocabulary building

19.5 Look at the Vocabulary building note at laugh and replace the verb in these sentences.

- 1 He laughed to himself as he remembered the funny story she'd told him. chuckled
- 2 There's no need for you to laugh. You sometimes make mistakes, too. _____
- 3 The old woman laughed horribly, like a witch in a children's story. _____
- 4 When the teacher asked them what they were doing, the girls laughed nervously. _____
- 5 'I don't believe it!' he laughed. That's the funniest thing I've seen in my life! _____

D Vocabulary building

19.5 Look at the Vocabulary building note at laugh and replace the verb in these sentences.

- 1 He laughed to himself as he remembered the funny story she'd told him. chuckled
- 2 There's no need for you to laugh. You sometimes make mistakes, too. snigger
- 3 The old woman laughed horribly, like a witch in a children's story. _____
- 4 When the teacher asked them what they were doing, the girls laughed nervously. _____
- 5 'I don't believe it!' he laughed. That's the funniest thing I've seen in my life! _____

D Vocabulary building

19.5 Look at the Vocabulary building note at laugh and replace the verb in these sentences.

- 1 He laughed to himself as he remembered the funny story she'd told him. chuckled
- 2 There's no need for you to laugh. You sometimes make mistakes, too. snigger
- 3 The old woman laughed horribly, like a witch in a children's story. cackled
- 4 When the teacher asked them what they were doing, the girls laughed nervously. _____
- 5 'I don't believe it!' he laughed. That's the funniest thing I've seen in my life! _____

D Vocabulary building

19.5 Look at the Vocabulary building note at laugh and replace the verb in these sentences.

- 1 He laughed to himself as he remembered the funny story she'd told him. chuckled
- 2 There's no need for you to laugh. You sometimes make mistakes, too. snigger
- 3 The old woman laughed horribly, like a witch in a children's story. cackled
- 4 When the teacher asked them what they were doing, the girls laughed nervously. giggled
- 5 'I don't believe it!' he laughed. That's the funniest thing I've seen in my life! _____

D Vocabulary building

19.5 Look at the Vocabulary building note at laugh and replace the verb in these sentences.

- 1 He laughed to himself as he remembered the funny story she'd told him. chuckled
- 2 There's no need for you to laugh. You sometimes make mistakes, too. snigger
- 3 The old woman laughed horribly, like a witch in a children's story. cackled
- 4 When the teacher asked them what they were doing, the girls laughed nervously. giggled
- 5 'I don't believe it!' he laughed. That's the funniest thing I've seen in my life! roared

Which options does a monolingual dictionary provide?

1. Definition
2. Pronunciation
3. Register
4. Frequency
5. Spelling
6. Different parts of speech
7. Collocations
8. Word building

9... 10...

14.3 Look at the note at trip. Complete these sentences using each of the words once.

trip journey tour expedition excursions

- 1 What are you doing for your holiday? We're going on a coach _____ of Belgium.
 - 2 There will be plenty of opportunities for making _____ from the cruise ship.
 - 3 She's leading a scientific _____ in the Himalayas.
 - 4 It was a long _____, over difficult terrain.
 - 5 I've got another business _____ at the end of the month.
-

14.3 Look at the note at trip. Complete these sentences using each of the words once.

trip journey tour expedition excursions

- 1 What are you doing for your holiday? We're going on a coach tour of Belgium.
 - 2 There will be plenty of opportunities for making _____ from the cruise ship.
 - 3 She's leading a scientific _____ in the Himalayas.
 - 4 It was a long _____, over difficult terrain.
 - 5 I've got another business _____ at the end of the month.
-

14.3 Look at the note at trip. Complete these sentences using each of the words once.

trip journey tour expedition excursions

- 1 What are you doing for your holiday? We're going on a coach tour of Belgium.
 - 2 There will be plenty of opportunities for making excursion from the cruise ship.
 - 3 She's leading a scientific _____ in the Himalayas.
 - 4 It was a long _____, over difficult terrain.
 - 5 I've got another business _____ at the end of the month.
-

14.3 Look at the note at trip. Complete these sentences using each of the words once.

trip journey tour expedition excursions

- 1 What are you doing for your holiday? We're going on a coach tour of Belgium.
 - 2 There will be plenty of opportunities for making excursion from the cruise ship.
 - 3 She's leading a scientific expedition in the Himalayas.
 - 4 It was a long _____, over difficult terrain.
 - 5 I've got another business _____ at the end of the month.
-

14.3 Look at the note at trip. Complete these sentences using each of the words once.

trip journey tour expedition excursions

- 1 What are you doing for your holiday? We're going on a coach tour of Belgium.
 - 2 There will be plenty of opportunities for making excursion from the cruise ship.
 - 3 She's leading a scientific expedition in the Himalayas.
 - 4 It was a long journey over difficult terrain.
 - 5 I've got another business _____ at the end of the month.
-

14.3 Look at the note at trip. Complete these sentences using each of the words once.

trip journey tour expedition excursions

- 1 What are you doing for your holiday? We're going on a coach tour of Belgium.
 - 2 There will be plenty of opportunities for making excursion from the cruise ship.
 - 3 She's leading a scientific expedition in the Himalayas.
 - 4 It was a long journey over difficult terrain.
 - 5 I've got another business trip at the end of the month.
-

Which options does a monolingual dictionary provide?

1. Definition
2. Pronunciation
3. Register
4. Frequency
5. Spelling
6. Different parts of speech
7. Collocations
8. Word building
9. Synonyms / Opposites
- 10...