

John Constable
(11 June 1776 – 31 March 1837)

- Was born in Suffolk
- In most of the works he painted landscapes of this area

Early career

Dedham Vale (1802)

Wivenhoe Park (1816)

Weymouth Bay (c. 1816)

Marriage

- Married the childhood friend Mary Elizabeth Bicknell in 1816
- Her grandfather was against the marriage and threatened deprivation of inheritance.

Maria Bicknell (1816)

The White Horse (1819)

The Hay Wain(1821)

Art

The Leaping Horse (1825)

The Stonehenge (1835)

Boat-building near Flatford Mill (1815)

Salisbury Cathedral from the Bishop's Grounds (c. 1825)

(The grave of John Constable, High Hampstead, London)

(The inscription on John Constable's tomb)

Thank you for attention!