

LIVING IN THE AGE OF COMMUNICATION

21ST CENTURY - THE "CENTURY OF COMMUNICATION"

The 21st century is called the "Century of Communication" because before, people over long distances could communicate on a landline phone, but not everyone had it.

Now, almost every house has a computer, most people have mobile phones, and many have smartphones with Internet access.

We can contact our friends and relatives at any time, when necessary - with rescue, delivery, etc. With the advent of the latest technologies, it has become easier for people to communicate with each other, share news, communicate information about themselves, about relatives, friends, society and the world as a whole.

These technologies - this is why our century is called the "Century of Communication."

ADVANTAGES AND DISADVANTAGES OF THE "CENTURY OF COMMUNICATION"

Advantages:

- 1) communication tools, almost always accessible and relatively easy to use, greatly facilitate our communication.
- 2) conversations from a distance
- 3) fast data transfer
- 4) payment for services and purchases

Disadvantages:

- 1) language depreciation
- 2) user illiteracy
- 3) the problem of "loneliness in the network"

ADVANTAGES AND DISADVANTAGES OF THE INTERNET

Advantages:

- 1) Quick connection
- 2) Abundant information resources
- 3) Affordable education
- 4) Entertainment, games
- 5) Social networks to keep in touch
- 6) Online Services and E-Commerce

Disadvantages:

- 1) Theft of personal information
- 2) Spam

WILL THE NEW TECHNOLOGICAL REVOLUTION BE STOPPED?

We cannot stop technological progress, but we can try to take action. It seems that the best strategy is to introduce reasonable restrictions at the level of the law, but make every effort so that the advantage gained through technology is stronger on the side of good than on the side of evil.
