

Wechat

Number of WeChat users about 8.89 hundred million . So what do people do with WeChat ?

Function of WeChat

- In addition to simple text transmission, voice function.
- WeChat also has free video chat and voice chat; You can replace phone calls.
- Location is a very common software that we often use. You can quickly find the means of transportation to your destination, Or do you drive .
- In addition to the annual Spring Festival in China, the term "hongbao" signifies an auspicious, well-wishing blessing. People still use red envelopes as dice.
- Transfer - due to the number of WeChat use, basically go out will only take 100-200 in cash, the other is WeChat pay (between people, in the supermarket to buy things, buy furniture electrical appliances besides bus or other government all the places). So this has become a very common feature. Even if the phone is stolen, WeChat's money can be recovered and is fairly safe. And it can eliminate the possibility of receiving fake money.
- Circle of friends - you can see the movement of friends.
- Shake - know people around you (a lot of liars, try not to rock), and shake's the name of the song .
- Game - you can see what games your friends are playing.

In addition to simple text transmission, voice function.
