

Unforgettable trip

My unforgettable trip is a trip to Barnaul with my friend and her family to the water park. It was sunny in the morning, and then it was cloudy all day, sometimes there was a snowstorm. We only went for one day, but we did a lot of things. When we were driving, we stopped by to eat hot dogs and drink coffee. There were few slides in the water park, but it was still a lot of fun. At first I was afraid to slide down the slides, but then I got used to it.

After the water park, we went to a large shopping center. There we go to eat khinkali and khachapuri in a small restaurant. We also went shopping, which are not in our city. On the way back we took pictures and drank soda. It was an unforgettable day
