

Traditions in Northern Ireland

Gaelic Football is the most favorite sport in Ireland.

Hurling is Ireland's most characteristic sport. It has an ancient history and is mentioned in many old Irish tales.

The Irish have a deep love for horses. They say that Horse Racing is the sport of kings. Most of the horse races take place from March until November.

Irish food is simple: meat, seafood, potato, vegetables. Traditional meals are stews and roast meat.

Irish dances are known all over the world.

One of the greatest Irish festivals
St. Patrick's Day.

It is a cultural and religious holiday widely celebrated on the 17th of March. The day generally involves public parades and festivals.
