The brightest sun, the clearest waters of the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic ocean, the sparkling beaches and the very impressive history and culture make this corner extremely beautiful and attractive. Nowadays a lot of people from different parts of the world admire this country a lot, and I am not the exception. The name of this amazing place is Spain

They say, there is not only one Spain, there are “lots of Spains”, because every part of this country is different from one another. They have a “dry Spain” (the north and the north-west parts of the country) and a “wet Spain” (the centre of Spain, the south and the south-east parts). Spain is the only place in the whole Europe where palm trees grow. There are hardly any cloudy or rainy days in this country. It’s the area of the eternal summer!

It's not surprising, that tourism in Spain is becoming more and more popular. Every year Spain is visited by 45-50 millions of tourists. This number is much bigger than the population of Spain!

What attracts people to Spain?

Of course, the Mediterranean Sea, historical landmarks and the ancient cities, such as Andalusia, Seville, Madrid and Barcelona which is one of the most beautiful cities and the biggest ports in the Mediterranean Sea.

Spain is a paradise corner, that hasn't been spoiled yet by lots of hotels and tourists. This country is famous for its magical olive trees. Spaniards produce and sell olive oil of the highest quality.

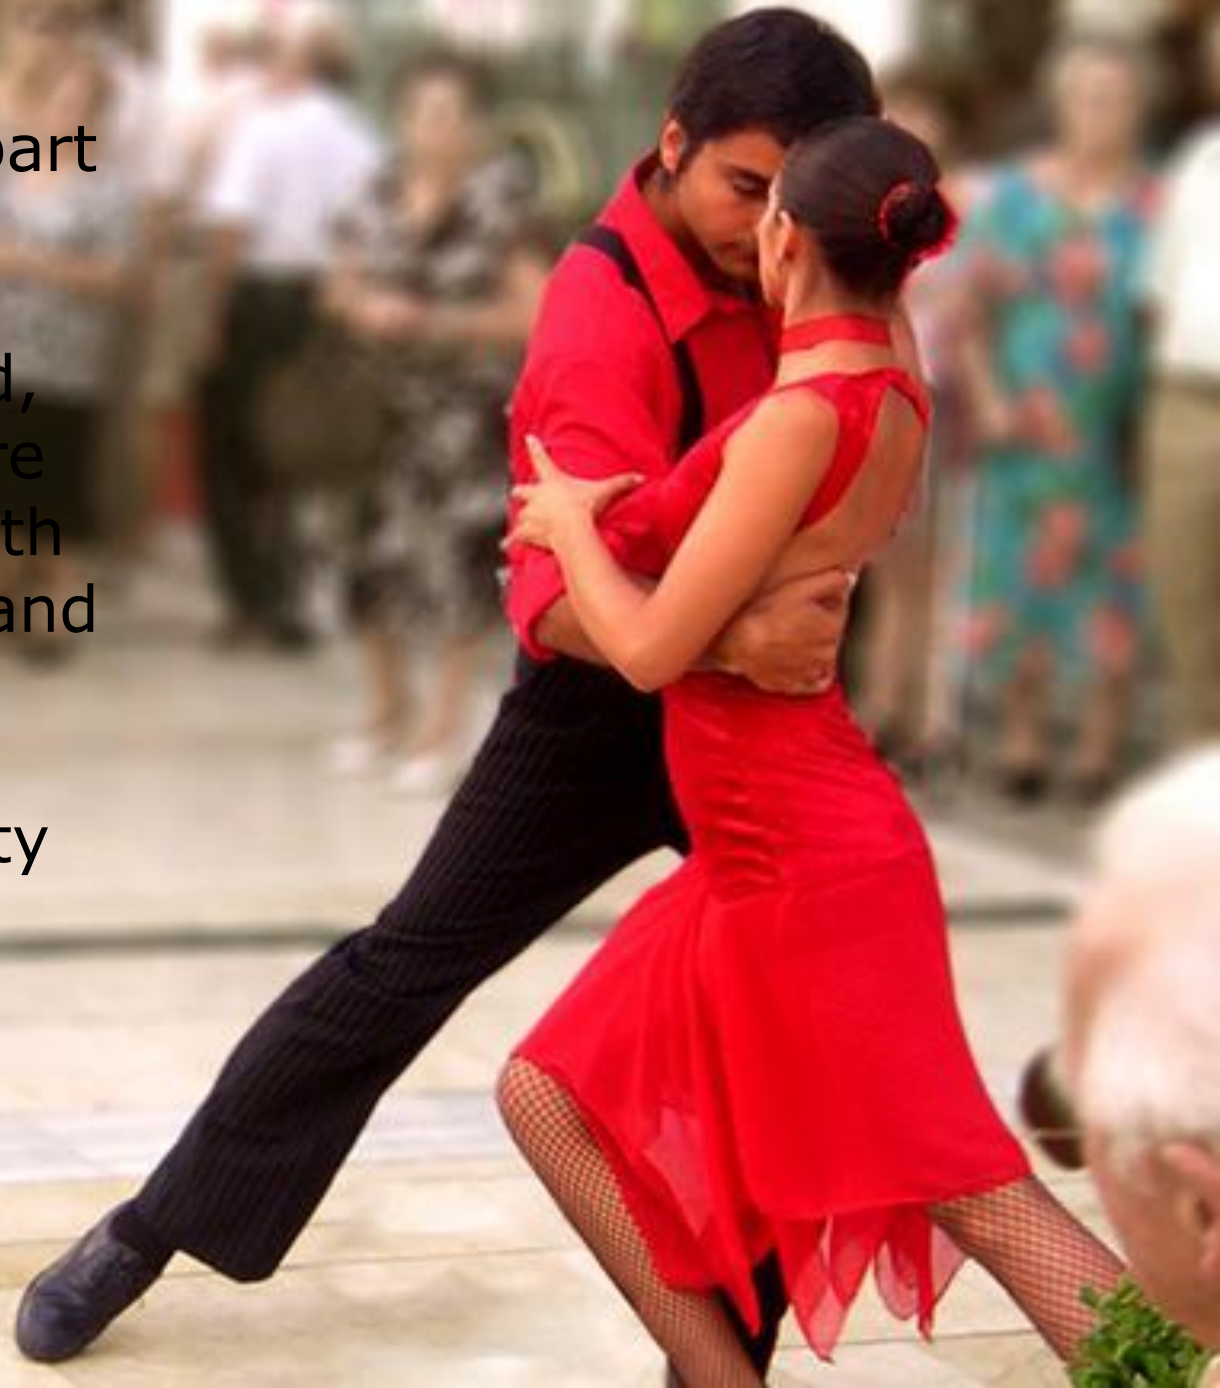

Bull fights are the part of every Spaniard's life. Every person in this fascinating country dreams about a job of a matador, but it's a very hard work. To be a matador you have to be very tall and very courageous. Professional matadors exercise every day since their early childhood and study in a special school of matadors in Seville. People from different corners of the world come to see these magnificent shows. How I wish to see it one day!

Flamenco dances, which came from Arabic, are also the part of Spanish culture. Nobody knows how many years appeared, but these dances were immediately loved with all Spaniards hearts and became the national dances of Spain. To understand the beauty and passion of the national dance, you should definitely visit such a magnificent show.

One more thing, which makes this country perfect for living, is their national beauty. Spaniards have dark hair, dark eyes, perfect figures and delicate features. Sometimes it's enough to look at Enrique Iglesias and realize that Spanish nation is the most beautiful nation in the world, except Russians, of course! They are not only beautiful, they are cheerful, friendly. I think these qualities make them so attractive.

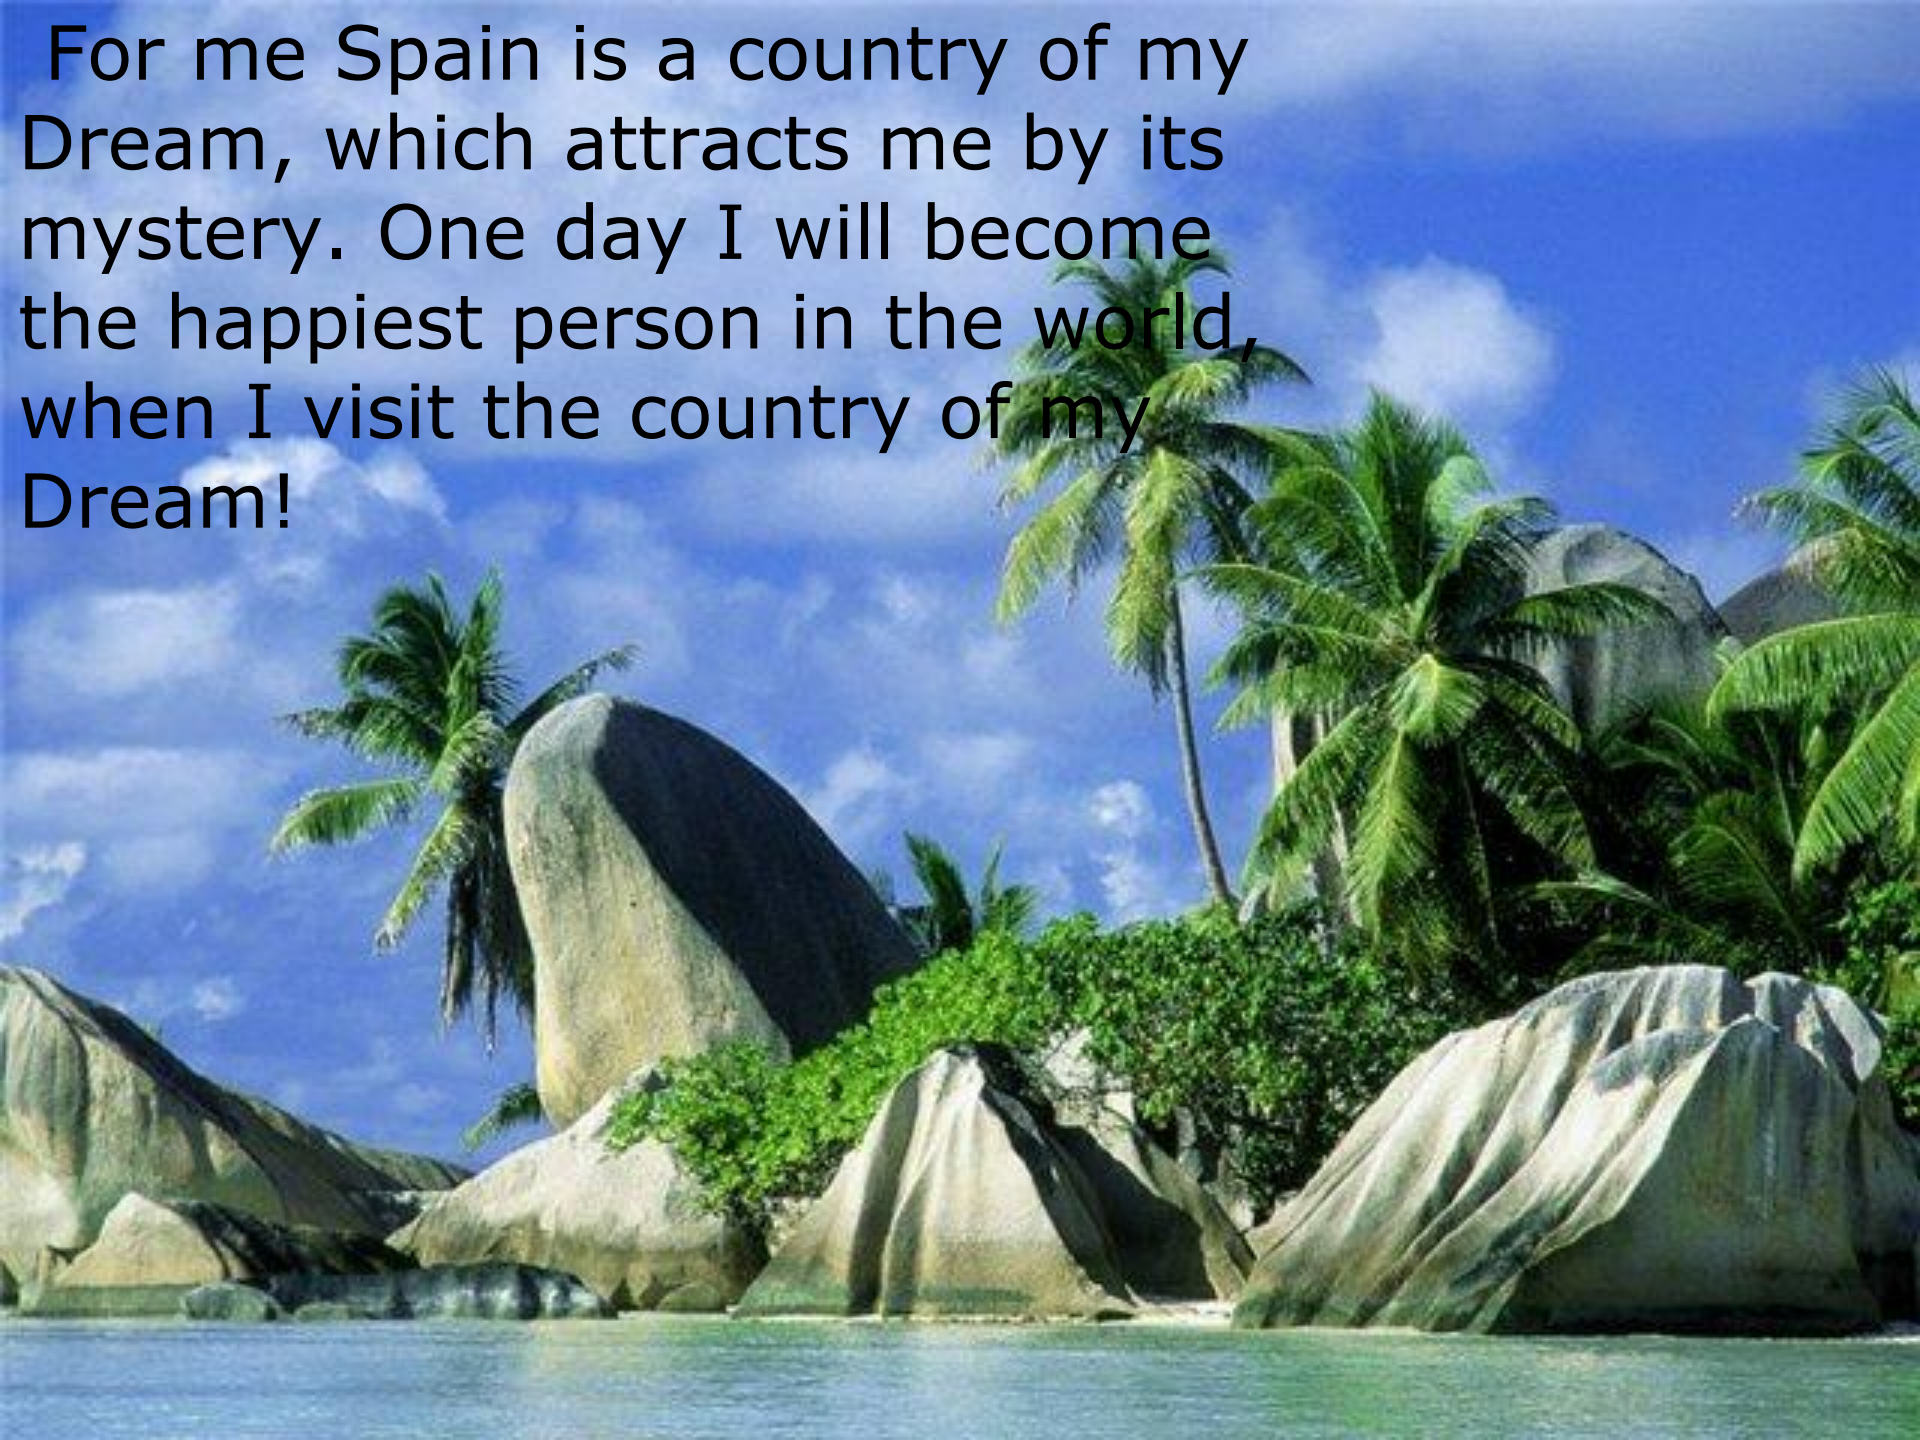

They like carnivals, traditional music and dances, evening walks along the main streets of their cities and villages.

They are proud of their football team, which became the best team in Europe due to Euro 2008.

For me Spain is a country of my Dream, which attracts me by its mystery. One day I will become the happiest person in the world, when I visit the country of my Dream!
