

Rinat Zaitov

Rinat Rifhatovich Zaitov (Kazakh Rinat Rifhatyly Zayytov, Ayagoz, November 17, 1983.) - Kazakh bard, poet-improviser native of East Kazakhstan region.

By profession is an actor and a teacher of the Kazakh language and literature. Since 2001, he participated and became the winner of the sets aityys. Rinat Zaitov is the author of many popular songs the words in the Kazakh language.

Rinat Zaitov born November 17, 1983 in the town Ayaguz East Kazakhstan region in the family Rifkhat Zaituly. His father divorced his mother Rinat, when he was 13 years and now works as the director of a school Aiaguz [1]. Rinat graduated from the College of Music named after M. Tulebaev profession "actor drama theater." Then he entered the State Pedagogical Institute in Semey (formerly. Semipalatinsk) and trained as a teacher of the Kazakh language and literature

During aitys on "Təuelsiz eldin zharyk tany", held from 2 to 4 December 2011 in Astana, Rinat Zaitov competed with the Kyrgyz poet-improviser Aaly Tutkuchevym

Rinat Zaitov worked in the theater Semey youth [1], participated in aitys to 17 years of age (2001) [3] and has been the winner of many competitions. He is the author of the words of many popular songs in the Kazakh like "Izin korem" with which Zhanar Dugalova won the Turkvision 2014 [4], "Tugan jer" group KeshYou "Təttimsiñ" singer Berkut, "From on Zhanar" Beibit Corgan, etc. .

