GONE.Fludd, and Alexander Buze—artist
from Tuchkovo, currently living in Moscow, a former member of the Association "SABBAT CULT".

GONE.Fludd is a Russian rap artist and songwriter. He began his solo career in 2015, having since released four Studio albums.

In 2015, as part of Sabbat Cult released the album "August Underground", after which he released two solo albums in a row – "Forms and emptiness" and "High Lust". In 2016-2017, he released three albums with Lottery Billz, M00NCHILD and IROH. The first success came with the release of the album "Boys Don't Cry". Real success came to Alexander in the fall of 2018 with the release of the album "Supersuits".

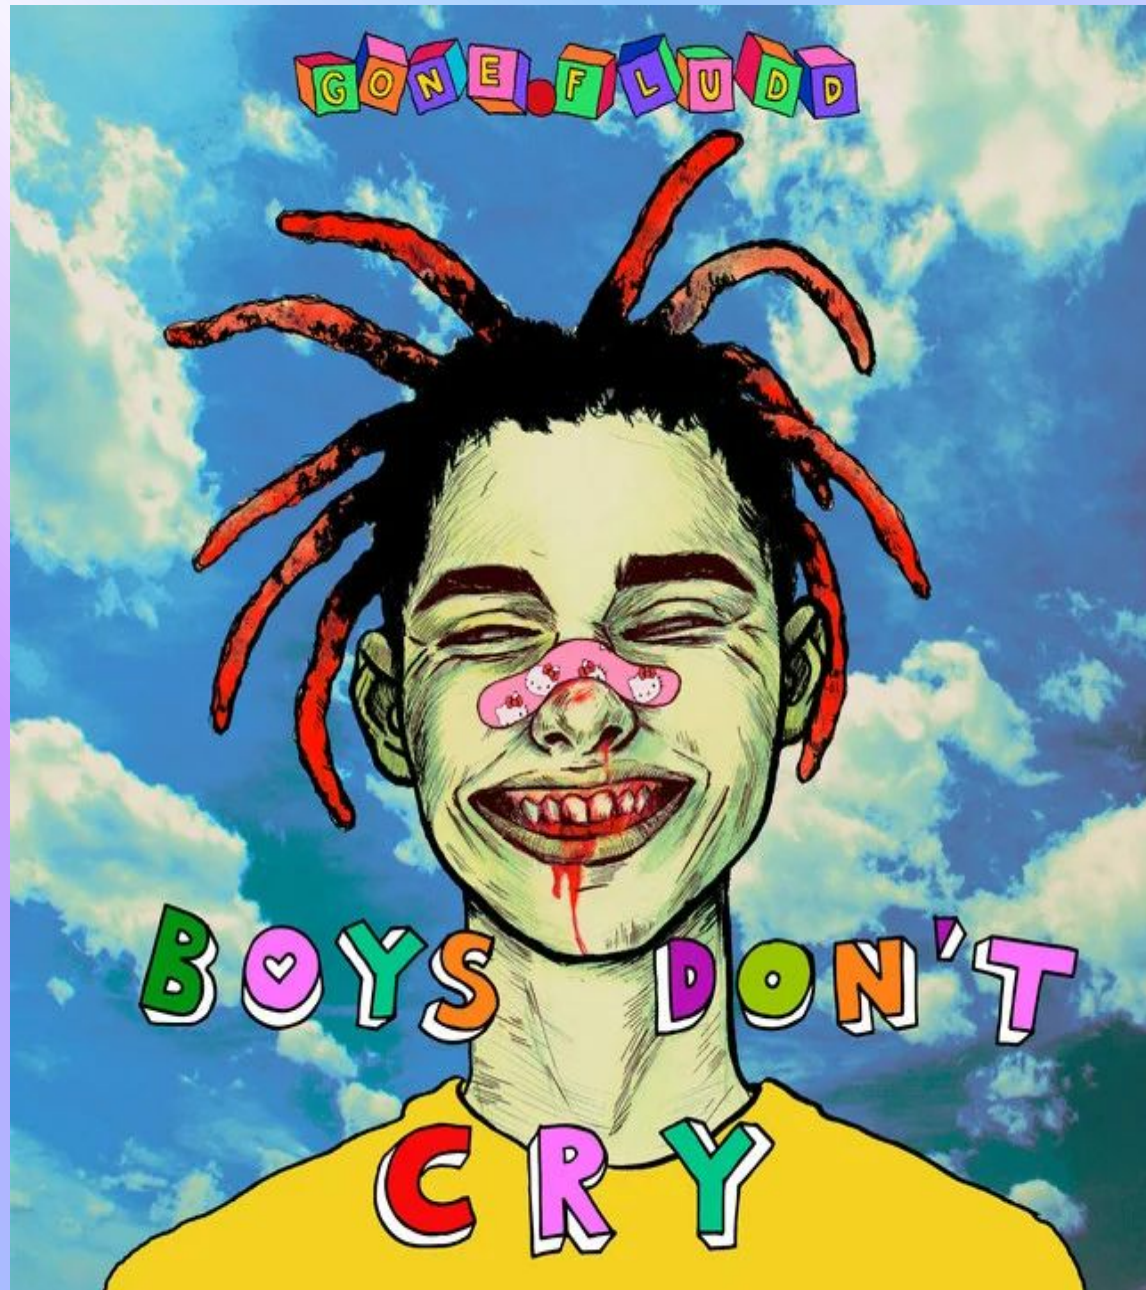

The most famous artist brought the album Boys Don't Cry, released in April 2018. Distributor-Sony Music Russia. In late June, he released a video for the song "Mumble", which unflattering comments about the performers mumble rap. In September she released the album "Supersuits". In less than a week, he's got over three million auditions.

Album Boys Don't Cry the most famous album of the singer.

which includes the following songs: Mumblr, ice cube and 14 more songs.

In September of 2018 Alexander on the wave of success released a mini-album of 7 tracks "Supercuts", which was also warmly received by the audience.

it includes the following songs:
Sugar people, Banana juice , Dripset , Emptiness.

I really like the new album "Supercuts" and most of all I liked the songs: Banana juice and Emptiness.

Thank you for listening
