"Children – Talents"

I think that the charity that I came up with a very useful and interesting. Children from the orphanage could themselves be involved in my charity.

Every child is revealed in some area, such as dancing, singing, theater, playing a musical instrument. With them for some time by specialists.

Then the children show their achievements at a special concert. People come to the concert who want to help children in need

They buy the tickets, and the money collected was given to the
