

MY FAVORITE PLACES
TO VISIT
IN MOSCOW

MADE BY POLINA KIRYUSHINA

PATRIARCH PONDS

- Patriarch's Ponds will always be associated with the timeless novel of Mikhail Bulgakov. There is a Bulgakov's museum near this place.
- Now this is also a good place to have a photoshoot or to sit with friends in some cafe, there are a lot of them there or to buy tasty macorons.

“I LOVE CAKE”, BOLSHOY PATRIARSHIY LANE 4

- Best cakes in Moscow and the biggest portions

WHITE SQUARE OFFICE CENTER

Belorusskaya metro station

THE MOSCOW CITY

- Good place to take photos near skyscrapers and to feel like you are in New York.

СМОТРОВАЯ HIGH PORT 354

- The highest open observation deck in Europe.
- The views and panoramas here are simply breathtaking as you can see all the city sights.

METROPOLITAN

Kievskaya metro station

This is an absolute copy of Paris metro station Pere Lachaise.

THE CATHEDRAL OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE HOLY VIRGIN MARY

Krasnopresnenskaya Metro Station

- At Malaya Gruzinskaya St. you will find the biggest and the oldest Catholic Cathedral in Moscow
- You can attend the concerts of organ and spiritual music. The organ here is sure to be one of the biggest in Russia, it allows the playing of organ music of different epochs in a stylistically perfect way.

ELISEEVSKY GROCERY SHOP

- Eliseevsky is a legendary grocery shop. Russians from all over the country came here to buy delicacies or at least to have a look at this legendary grocery shop. Foreigners didn't leave Moscow before visiting it.

Thank you!
