Preparation for the chosen specialty

- Education in Russia People in our country have the right for education. It is our Constitutional right. But it is not only a right, it is a duty, too. Every boy and every girl in Russia must go to school, that is, they must get a full secondary education. So, when they are 6 or 7 years old they begin to go to school.

Basic classes

- There are thousands of schools in Russia. There are schools of general education, where the pupils study Russian (or a native language), Literature, Mathematics, History, Biology, Geography, Music, Arts, Foreign Languages.

The beginning of adult life

- After finishing 9 classes of the secondary school young people can continue their education at different kinds of vocational or technical schools or colleges.

Basics of Basics

- They don't only learn general subjects, but receive a speciality there. Having finished a secondary school, a technical school or a college young people can start working, or they may enter an Institute or a University. Professional trainings makes it easier to get a higher education.

The end

- There are many specialties available in our country. You can become a medic, an electrician, a machinist, and so on. It all depends on you. Your future is in your hands!
