- The popular Russian athlete, volleyball player Ekaterina Gamova was born in the famous industrial center of Russia, the city of Chelyabinsk. This event took place in the year of the Olympiad in Moscow, or rather on the seventeenth of October 1980. Ekaterina Gamova is a member of the Russian national volleyball team, twice she became the world champion in volleyball as part of our national team. Ekaterina Gamova is an honored Master of Sports of Russia. In 2010, volleyball player Ekaterina Gamova was recognized as the best athlete in Russia.

Ekaterina Gamova was born in Chelyabinsk, studied at secondary school No. 71 with sports classes, started playing volleyball at the age of eight under the guidance of her aunt Lyubov Borisovna. At the age of 14, Ekaterina was enrolled in the Chelyabinsk team of masters "Metar". In 1996, she won the first title in her career - the Cup of Russia.

- In 1998, at the training camp in Alushta, Ekaterina Gamova received an offer to move to Yekaterinburg to the famous Uralochka, headed by the coach of the Russian national team Nikolai Karpol. In March 1999, Uralochka and its subsidiary team Uraltransbank, for which Gamova played, met in the final of the Russian Championship and nominally the second team almost beat the first, leading 2:1 in sets. Ekaterina Gamova became the winner of the Russian Championship for the first time

- In the autumn of 2004, Ekaterina Gamova announced her decision to leave Uralochka for Dynamo Moscow. In 2006-2009, Gamova became a champion of Russia three times and a silver medalist once as a member of Dynamo.
- Ekaterina Gamova spent six seasons as a member of Dynamo Kazan and became one of the main creators of the success of the team that won five Russian championships in a row in 2011-2015
- Ekaterina Gamova spent the 2009/2010 season in Turkey, playing for Fenerbahce Istanbul. Starting with winning the Turkish Super Cup, Fenerbahce excelled in the Cup and the national Championship without a single defeat, and only in the Champions League final - the 39th match of the season - the winning streak was interrupted. Another individual prize was won by Ekaterina Gamova, who became the most productive at the Final Four in Cannes. In the summer of 2010, the Russian diagonal moved to Dynamo Kazan.
